Audit: The financial records for 2007-2008 were audited and minor revisions were made according to John Beith on December 3, 2009.

2. Clerk's Report

The Association Board, (composed of association officers, 3 lay persons from each church, pastors/staff, finance committee chairperson), met two times during the past year: February 16 and June 1. Approximately 50 representatives from the churches received informative reports and transacted important business of the association. At the February 16 meeting, The Church of the Open Door in Pinehurst, pastored by Dr. David Boroughs, was accepted into the Association under watch care status for a period of one year. The congregation summary report for the 33 churches in the association is printed at the end of the book of reports.

Patty Lunday, Clerk

3. Director of Missions Report

The mission statement of our association, "Assisting Churches in Multiplying Kingdom Servants," is a statement of how we want to be known and a reflection of what we are doing. We want our church members and the communities around us to see us as a group of churches who have focused upon producing an increasing number of citizens of the Kingdom of God who have been equipped to do and are daily involved in the work of the Kingdom.

Are we doing this? Yes! Can we do it more effectively? Yes!

We can celebrate the birth and growth of Church of the Open Door now meeting off Hwy 5 in Pinehurst. We can celebrate the work of Ernesto Robledo and the partnership FBC Robbins has with that Hispanic work. We can celebrate the training we as an association are providing through a regional spring Sunday School conference, a three-session pastors' table talk on evangelism, and the plans for a 2010 bivocational/small church pastor's conference. We can celebrate the availability of our Celebration Ministry trailer equipped to provide all the tools necessary to impact a community with the message of God's grace and love.

To live out this vision more effectively, we must see and accept the challenges that are before us. Our members must share the gospel with more lost people. We must equip the saints of our congregations for the work of the Kingdom of God by making personal spiritual development a higher priority in our church calendars and budgets. We can provide the necessary leadership our churches need for both now and the future as we focus on training in doctrine, developing Christian character, and practicing our spiritual giftedness.

In the coming year we must accept the challenges that await us beyond the comfort and security of our church walls. We must risk being missionaries in our communities, our state, and the world. We must risk personal comfort by becoming involved as peacemakers in the conflicts of life.

We must provide greater ministry to the growing community of aging adults in our midst. We need two more active Hispanic ministries in other parts of our association like the one in Robbins. We must give greater on-site support to the Baptist Children's camps in our area. We must offer additional redemptive support to homes touched by marital and intergenerational tension. We must be salt and light in our communities through Operation Inasmuch with at least 25 churches and 1400 volunteers involved. We must be willing to pay the price through personal sacrifice if we are to be about the business of multiplying Kingdom servants.

We must strengthen the family of God to face the challenges of the future. As the Body of Christ, we have not received a commission to dwell safely inside our ivory towers. We have been commissioned to go into the streets and marketplaces, the highways and hedges, the apartment complexes and the subdivisions carrying the gospel and offering hope. God has promised to provide us with all we need to be faithful to his call.

As we enter a new decade of the 21st century, we must accept the fact that old methods will not work in bringing about different results. We must be bold, risk-taking, and willing to walk by faith. Only then will we see churches "multiplying Kingdom servants."

Tom Lamkin
Director of Missions

VI. Team Leaders Reports

1. Brotherhood Report

Men in our churches were active this year reaching out to church members and people in the community with ministries of helps. Many churches held workdays modeled after Operation Inasmuch. In 2009, NC Baptist Men encouraged churches to hold workdays, but there was less emphasis for Operation Inasmuch than in 2008. NC Baptist Men will promote Operation Inasmuch heavily in 2010.

Brotherhood members maintained disaster relief readiness and contacts with the Raleigh office. As of October 1 there had been few opportunities to mobilize.

The Royal Ambassador program is active in only a few of SBA Churches. The focus in the 2009/2010 program year will be actively working to match men and boys together in mentoring relationships. In some cases this will happen by creating or improving Brotherhood and RA Chapters. Other times it will take place outside of formal chapters. There is documented evidence that boys are doing less well in elementary and high schools. Fewer boys are furthering their education after high school. Poor academic performance generally leads to other social problems. A more vibrant ministry for boys is crucial in these times.

Respectfully submitted,
Craven Hudson, Brotherhood Leader

2. Discipleship Training Report

I believe nothing says more about how we love God than learning and applying what we have learned from His Word to and through our lives. I am encouraged that discipleship training is a part of our Sandhills Baptist Association churches' ministry. Through this ministry our hearts, our minds, our lives are disciplined for the Lord. Our Resource Library continues to add some great training resources that you can check out, which will help you with your church's Discipleship Training Ministry. Thank you for the opportunity to serve you these past few years.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. Wayne Greene
Discipleship Team Leader

3. Evangelism Report

We thank God for all of the evangelistic efforts that have been made by our churches in this past year and we pray that we will keep up the good work in the upcoming year. Our Lord Jesus said in Luke 19:13 that we should "occupy till I come" or to do business until he comes again. We pray that the business that all of our churches will be about in this upcoming year is that of praying for the lost and sharing the good news of Jesus Christ with the lost.

There will be several things taking place in the upcoming year that will help us to do this. On Saturday, October 24 we will have Chris Schofield (our Prayer/Evangelism Team Leader for the Baptist State Convention) lead a prayer conference for our family and friends at Pleasant Hill Baptist at 9:30 a.m. This will be a great way to get us focused on the work of evangelism as the busy time of November and December approaches, and get us ready not only to serve turkey and buy gifts for our family and friends, but to be ready to share the gospel with them.

On February 28-March 2 our state Evangelism Conference will be held and it will be different this year. It will be called Convergence 2010 – A Prayer, Evangelism and Leadership Forum. This will cover all areas of evangelism from praying for the lost to leadership roles in the church for evangelism, to challenging us to actually do the work of evangelism. The forum will be held at Hickory Grove Baptist Church in Charlotte. There will also be an intentionally evangelistic church strategy training session for evangelism that will be on March 23-26 in Greensboro.

We would like for you to mark on your calendars the day of April 24, 2010. On this day we will again have a statewide "Operation Inasmuch" outreach. Be praying and seeking different ways that we can minister to our communities around us and involve everyone in our churches. As we look around and see so many people who are hurting, struggling and seeking for answers and direction in their lives, let's keep up the good work of evangelism and keep telling folks about the good news of Jesus, whether that is through VBS, singings, outreach visitations, revivals or weekly services, or whatever way it may be in this upcoming church year. Let's do the business of evangelism and work until Jesus comes.

Rev. Gregg Newton, Team Leader

5. Missions Report

This past year has seen our association take significant strides in addressing the spiritual condition of our region. These steps have involved financial investment, time investment, and investments in our communities beyond our church walls. We have seen our churches truly act like God's people at work in the world.

In February of this year we had a Missions Celebration with a Youth emphasis, held at Fairview Baptist Church. Mike Penry from Raleigh was our speaker. Our next celebration will take place in 2011.

Our Celebration Missions trailer was used by four of our churches to assist in mission projects during the year. Please remember this trailer is available for your church at any time.

Dr. David Boroughs and the Church of the Open Door are still moving forward to do the work that God has called them to do as a new church in our area.

One large event coming in 2010 is Operation Inasmuch. It will take place on April 24 and May 1. Our goal is to have 25 churches participating on one of those two dates and 1400 volunteers.

These are just a few areas of missions involvement that our churches have had during this year. Please keep up the good work.

Respectfully submitted,
Mike Branscome
Missions Dev. Team Leader

6. Music Report

The 16th annual Sandhills Baptist Association ChoirSing was once again deemed a success by those who attended and participated. Eight choirs from member churches participated, blessing the hearts of those that attended and exalted our Heavenly Father through song. But no matter how successful something might be, ideas and concerns are present that need to be addressed. On October 8th, the music directors were asked to come and meet at the association office to discuss these ideas and concerns. One statement was a constant throughout the meeting: we need to seek God's will and direction before implementing any ideas or changes. So it was decided that we need to engage in a season of prayer before moving forward. We are to meet again in January, where hopefully, more directors can attend to resolve concerns and implement any needed changes. I ask that all of you pray with us and for us as we seek discernment of God's will not only for ChoirSing but for the association music department as a whole.

I would also like to challenge music directors and member churches to go out this holiday season and minister to the public in song. Christmas caroling is the most tried and true form of accomplishing this. It doesn't have to be just your choirs, but any members in your church that have a song in their hearts and are willing to share it through song. Whether you minister to those sick and shut-in, living in assisted living facilities, or in front of a store at your local shopping centers, please make it a focal point to spread the Good News of the birth of our Savior Jesus Christ through song this season.

Respectfully Submitted,
Bryan Foster, Music Team Leader

7. Pastoral Ministries Report

Efforts to support the work of the pastors of our association have been focusing upon both their spiritual needs and competency improvement. A minister's prayer group, cluster groups of pastors meeting for support, recommended books and short reviews are ongoing ministry efforts coming from the associational office.

In September, a joint pastor and deacon training session taught by David Marks was offered to our pastors and deacons of our churches. Also, in September an opportunity to go and meet with several leaders of our convention staff and discuss issues within the convention was offered to our pastors. Support for our bivocational pastors continues with written material, monthly emails, and occasional meetings to talk about concerns of the bivocational minister.

Discussion on a Care-Net Community Counseling Center is scheduled for Oct. 16. This will look at the possibility of having a Christian counselor provided by the Baptist Hospital located in this area for referrals by local pastors.

Also scheduled is a prayer retreat for pastors and staff at Caraway Retreat Center in November.

Respectfully submitted,
David Marks, Pastoral Ministries Team Leader

8. Senior Adult Report

Moore County is the fifth oldest county in the state by demographics. In the Sandhills Baptist Association the influx of senior adults moving here for retirement living and the aging of the current residency contribute to our increasing senior adult population. Of the total population, 25% is over the age of 60 and 39% is over the age of 50. The current population of Moore County according to the 2005 census estimate for residents 60 and older is 22,046. This is expected to grow to 37,880 by 2030, a 71.8% increase.

A Senior Adult Ministry Advisory Committee is in the process of being formed to provide guidance and direction for the Sandhills Baptist Association Senior Adult Ministry (SBASAM).

The Senior Adult Ministry Team leader is seeking assistance from local pastors and church leaders in identifying one leader in 10 local churches. These key leaders must be willing to devote the time needed for training and in ministering to senior adults in their church and local community. The 10 leaders will serve as the Sandhills Baptist Association Senior Adult Ministry Advisory Committee. Three churches have agreed to participate and others are being contacted. Please let Patty know if your church is interested.

The SBASAM will develop working relationships with potential partnership groups such as NCBAM, BSCNC Family Ministries, Baptist Retirement Homes, NC Baptist Men – handyman services/disaster relief/recovery, Moore County Department of Aging, Moore County Department of Social Services, and the equivalent departments in surrounding counties

9. Sunday School Report

Sunday school could be the most powerful growth tool for the church in the twenty-first century. It involves every age group of the church in small groups. Everyone that comes to church or is invited to church thinks, Am I Wanted? Am I Needed? Involvement in small groups says 'YOU ARE WANTED; YOU BELONG; YOU ARE NEEDED'. Jesus began his ministry with a small group of followers. Sunday school has a proven track record. Our goal for this coming year is to establish a great commission vision for Sunday school. Growth results from obedience to the Great commission. We will reach people to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Keith Mercer, Team Leader

10. Woman's Missionary Union Report

The WMU of the Sandhills Association has had a very successful and active year. They have been involved and encouraged churches to become involved in many activities and projects in our association.

In October, World Hunger Day was observed in our churches. Also, our Acteen Leaders took several of our Acteens to a retreat. A World Crafts Party was held and benefited around $700.00 which was deposited with the WMU Foundation and distributed to artisans around the world.

Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer was observed in November. Speakers were Mr. Ken Tan, who works with the Baptist State Convention in Multicultural Ministries and Mrs. Kathleen Bishop, missionary in Cambodia.

A Week of Prayer for International Missions and the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering was observed in December. Also, Operation Christmas Child was a huge success as churches across our association prepared Christmas Shoeboxes to be shipped overseas for children.

An Associational Prayer Retreat was held in February at Calvary Church. Mrs. Sandra Harrison of the South Yadkin Baptist Association was the leader for the retreat.

WMU Focus Day was observed in our churches as well this month. This was a time for our ladies to focus on the importance of missions in our churches.

A Week of Prayer for North American Missions and the Annie Armstrong Offering was observed in March. This month our associational leadership attended Missions Extravaganza for training at Ridgecrest.

An Associational Team Retreat was held in April. It was a time for spiritual enrichment and planning for our team leadership.

Mrs. Ruby Fulbright, our Executive Director/Treasurer of NCWMU, was our guest speaker for our Annual Missions Celebration. The host church was First Baptist Church, Southern Pines. Approximately 100 people attended. Reports were given from Mr. Paul Daley of Camp Duncan, Mrs. Sue McKenzie of Habitat for Humanity and Mr. Tom Lamkin, our Director of Missions regarding the Ministry Van.

Our Leadership Team traveled to Burlington for associational leadership training in June. This was also an exciting time for the Groundbreaking and Picnic for the new girls wilderness camp located at Camp Duncan. Ladies in our association prepared all desserts for this occasion. It was a wonderful day for Camp Duncan.

A Missions Rally was held for children and youth at First Baptist Church, Robbins in June. A fun day of Bible Study, crafts, fun and food was enjoyed by those attending.

A "Spicing It Up" Brunch was held which included leadership training for all WMU leaders. It was a great time for fellowship and training as we prepared for the new year.

WMUNC is in partnership with Habitat for Humanity of the NC Sandhills Women Build of 2009. A house was begun in September which will be built by women volunteers. It is expected to be completed by December for a family to occupy.

12. Seminary Extension Report

Seminary Extension is a convenient way for Baptists to enter more deeply in their spiritual journey through theological education. This avenue provides basic courses in Biblical Studies, Church History, Ethics, Discipline, and Christian Ministry. The Association is here to guide anyone in the quest for a deeper understanding of their Christian faith.

5. Ordination Council Report

The Associational Ordination Council was called upon to meet just one time this year. Pleasant Hill Baptist Church asked us to interview Mr. Brad Marona in his request to be ordained to the ministry he felt called to. The ordination council was satisfied in his statement of salvation and his call to the ministry of the Gospel. The Council voted unanimously to recommend to the church that they ordain Mr. Marona to the ministry.

6. Property and Grounds Report

The Property and Grounds Committee has the responsibility of keeping the buildings and surrounding property maintained and in good order. This year the following churches have done an excellent job on the grounds: March-Ephesus; April-Emmanuel; May-Pleasant Hill; June-Red Branch; July-Carthage; August-Lemon Springs; September-Aberdeen; October-Pinehurst.

Even with the dry weather this summer only 1 of the 31 shrubs that were replaced died. The others are growing and looking good. Thanks to Terry Bryant for the donation of pine straw that has been placed around the shrubbery.

Many thanks to Ashley Heights for the donation of a trailer; it has been painted, equipped with supplies and named the "Celebration Ministry." Our churches are encouraged to use it for special events.

Harold Cameron, Chairman

7. Credentials Committee Report

8. Constitution Committee

The Constitution and Bylaws Committee is composed of the following four members: Associational Moderator, Eugene Ussery, Pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church; Vice –Moderator, Phillip Daggerhart of Pleasant Hill Baptist Church; Tom Lamkin, Associational Missionary and Chairperson Janice Thomas, Taylor Memorial Baptist Church. We have been charged with the responsibility of reviewing and updating the Constitution and Bylaws of our Association. This committee has been meeting faithfully since the first of this year. As of this date, we have completely reviewed the Constitution and will be working on the Bylaws at our next meeting on October 22nd. According to our Constitution and Bylaws, the association may amend or alter the bylaws by a vote of two-thirds of messengers present at an annual meeting, provided that each change or amendment is submitted in writing on the first day of the session for vote on the following day. Each proposed change or amendment must be printed in the association newsletter in the last issue before the annual session. Our Committee plans to follow this process and make sure that all churches in the Association are notified prior to presenting the changes at an annual meeting. Please continue to pray for this Committee as we strive to fulfill our duty.

VIII. Historical Events in the Churches

ABERDEEN: A Sunday School Picnic/Family Fun Day was held October 4. On October 23 Richard Brunson, Director of NC Baptist Men, was the speaker at the Baptist Men's dinner. Upward basketball began in October. Our pastor began a five week sermon series on "Spiritual Gifts" in October. November 30-December 7 was the Week of Prayer for International Missions. February 15 was WMU Sunday. Delores Thomas, second vice-president of NC WMU spoke on "We Are Called to Love." On March 22 Neriya Arabon from Chosen People Ministries spoke on "Messiah in the Passover." Our spring revival was held March 29-April 1. Guest speaker was Rev. Mike Cummings. In June we moved into our new educational building. Missions projects were done every month: Aberdeen Interfaith Food Pantry, benefit concert, MANNA projects every Tuesday evening, Helping Hands every Thursday evening, and Camp Duncan for Girls. Several discipleship training classes were held this year: "When God's People Pray" by Jim Cymbala, "Esther – It's Tough Being A Woman – Beth Moore, "Experiencing God" – Henry Blackaby, "Financial Peace University – Dave Ramsey, and "The Way of the Master" – Ray Comfort. Renovations on our existing building began in July of this year.

ASHLEY HEIGHTS: Ashley Heights Baptist Church has a heart for outreach within the community and surrounding areas. This year we held a Fall Festival and a Spring Fling at our church to provide fun, food, games and fellowship with our community families. We shared the gospel with all who took part. In the Spring we held "Operation Inasmuch" with members taking part in sewing projects, yard work, and a large group worked at Camp Duncan to help with the ongoing projects there. We all received a blessing by being a part of these activities. On September 19, 2009 our church hosted a booth at the North Carolina Turkey Festival in Raeford, North Carolina. Church members volunteered to work all day to reach the unchurched that were in attendance at the festival. We gave tracts and information about Ashley Heights. Members enjoyed being a witness for our Lord and Savior. The deacons of our church took part in an awesome study entitled "The Deacon I Want To Be" written by Johnny Hunt, president of the Southern Baptist Convention. If your church has not provided this study we pray that you will consider it as a tool in your deacon ministry.

BETHLEHEM: Bethlehem Baptist Church celebrated its 175th anniversary. Our church was established in 1834. Rev. William Kilpatrick was called to be our pastor. He and his wife Caitlyn began their ministry at the beginning of June. A special Christian Education Scholarship Fund was established, entitled "The Zeb and Evelyn Moss Scholarship Fund." Its purpose is to provide financial assistance to young ministerial/Christian education students, to include our newly elected pastor and his wife. The WMU donated 65 bottles of vitamins for the WMU-NC Missions Team to use in their ministry among the Bedouin women in Lebanon. The team spent ten days in Lebanon in April. The Christian Cheer Group donated items for the Bingo Store at Manor Care in Pinehurst and Tara Plantation in Carthage. Knitted toboggans were made and donated to the K-Challenge and Cameron Boys Camp by the GAS. Bible drill training was introduced, and Taylor Memorial Baptist Church presented a demonstration in March. (Kay Robbins, clerk)

BEULAH HILL: The Christmas Program in December 2008 was one of the best ever. The church was packed to see our children perform....and perform they did. Bravo!! In March 2009, Lt Colonel Greg Rawlings returned from a tour in Iraq and was warmly welcomed by family and members of the Church. A one-day Vacation Bible School was held in July and over 50 children enjoyed the Saturday activities. During the August 2009 Business Meeting, Brothers Jim Hendrick and Greg Rawlings were approved to serve on the Deacon Board for a three year term. They replaced Brothers Harry Graham and Bill Stripling who rotated off the Board. The Church continues the search for a new location and has received over $85,000 for the Building Fund. (Bill Stripling)

CALVARY: Under the leadership of Rev. Brad Harrison, Calvary Baptist Church has prospered in ministering to their members and also to the community. This last year, the "Great Commission" was taught to all who attended special meetings twice a month. Calvary has also started a ministry out of the country to five military individuals who are directly connected to the church. Most of these men are stationed in Iraq. These military care packages are mailed out once a month with items that are needed for their physical needs as well as literature for their spiritual needs. This missionary project has been very successful. Calvary was very supportive of the Northern Moore Crusade with Quinton Mills that was held in September. Operation Inasmuch was a successful ministry that the majority of Calvary members participated in April. Persons filled flower pots for others to take out into the community. The teenagers sponsored a free car wash and counselors were available to talk to persons who stopped in, while they were able to enjoy something to eat. The junior's class, and kindergarten classes visited Pine Lake Rest Home and gave residents goodie bags. Women's Outreach Ministry held their first Mother-Daughter Banquet in May. Special days are the Men's Sunday in January, Women's Sunday in February and Youth Sunday in March, where they take on all the duties of the church for that Sunday, and a fellowship meal usually follows those services. Our building and grounds committee has finished up remodeling four Sunday school class rooms, with new carpet, paint, and new marker boards. New cabinets were also installed. Pastor Brad Harrison accepted the call to go and minister to Edgewood Baptist Church in Mebane. His last Sunday was September 13th. Dr. Zeb Moss is serving as interim pastor. (Patricia Mabe, Clerk)

CAMERON: With a lot of talk about High Definition Television (HDTV) this year, our Pastor, Dr. Wayne Greene, asked us, "as the world sees us, do they see a better picture of who God is?" High Definition Living! Cameron Baptist participated in many mission projects this year. Some included the annual Christmas Party for needy families in our community, the Operation Inasmuch campaign (with 72 people involved), our Legacy Builders (Brotherhood) building handicap ramps for several people in our community, and the two Antique Street Fairs. The Jessie Loving Circle hosted a ladies luncheon, with guest speaker Missionary Michelle Sims sharing many of the things that have been done in Romania. A campaign to raise funds for Cameron Elementary School PTA was initiated through our church. It was exciting to see the churches of our community (Cameron Baptist, the Methodist, Presbyterian, Hood Chapel and First Baptist Church) work together for this cause. With 901 meals (catered by Jordan's of West End) sold and some donations, over $4,300.00 was raised to help the teachers buy needed classroom supplies. To God be the glory! (Ruby Hendrick, Historian)

CARTHAGE: Carthage First Baptist continues to support projects and mission work through Samaritan's Purse, Lottie Moon, Annie Armstrong, Heck Jones, Baptist Children's Homes, New Year's Day Community Breakfast, Lenten Services, and Fourth of July celebration. On May 25, 2009 we celebrated our 150th anniversary. Former pastor and President of NC Children's Homes, Rev. Michael Blackwell, was our guest speaker. Bible School was held in August this year under the direction of our Music Director, Jenny Munoz. We were saddened by the loss of five members. They were Francis Cockman, Curt Presley, James Thomas, Lena Salmon and Carlotta Maples. Newly elected deacons Becky Prim, Catherine Graham and Sammy Riddle were ordained November 2, 2008. Carthage First Baptist ended its 2008-09 church year with much active participation in our Adult Activities, WMU, and Baptist Men organizations, led by Lorna Clack and Bobby Brendell. Mark Fry led many interesting sessions through Discipleship Training each month. Our Harvest Fest Trunk or Treat night on Friday, October 3, 2008 was a big success in our community. (Ann Lynch, clerk)

Boroughs, church planter/pastor. Our vision, or what we seek to be, is: "To be a family of Christ-followers excited about the Gospel and overflowing into the lives of those around us." Our mission, or what we seek to do, is: "To reach people with the Gospel, teach them how to follow Jesus, and send them out to reach others." Our core values are: the Gospel, relationships, discipleship, ministry, Scripture, and evangelism/missions/multiplication. Our membership requirements are: (1) A personal experience of receiving Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, (2) Completion of our membership orientation course, (3) Sharing of one's salvation experience with the congregation and signing of our membership covenant, (4) Affirmative vote of the congregation, and (5) Baptism by immersion. We have just renewed our lease through December, 2010. During the current church year our membership has doubled to 20 and our average Sunday attendance is in the mid-30's. We went through the credentials process with the association last winter and were received under the watch care of the association at the 2009 spring associational board meeting. Charles Hinson retired again in August 2008. Rev. Douglas Martin served as interim for three months. Our current pastor, Rev. Todd Moore, came to us September 1, 2009. We have taken advantage of workshops provided by our associational leaders. We have added one new member to our church family. Our annual homecoming and revival was held in September 2009. We had a very active VBS this year. We have two missions groups, Acteens and CIA, in addition to our WMU. (Irene Thomas, historian)

A "Feed My Sheep" ministry was held at the Rescue Squad in Carthage and provided meals and a Word to the community. John Chavis has joined us as Associate Pastor. A Pastors and Deacons Wives Ministry Team was formed to assist with needs in the church body. (Susan Cook, Church Clerk)

HARMONY: We are pleased to announce that in March 2009 we celebrated our second anniversary. In missions, we participated in the Lottie Moon, Annie Armstrong and the Christmas in August missions. Milestones for the year include a WMU group, which met for the first time in June. Our youth joined the Middle Cross youth and attended Camp Caswell in July. The church unanimously accepted the deacons' recommendation to call Mike Sullivan as Visitation Minister. Mike was licensed by Red Branch Baptist Church to preach the gospel ministry and was ordained by Harmony Baptist Church on October 11. MIDDLE CROSS: God has been very good to Middle Cross Baptist in 2009 and we are excited about what 2010 has to bring. We can see over and over again the many blessings that He has provided. Cancer Support Group - Middle Cross has a group of dedicated individuals who have worked tirelessly this year to minister to those in our church family and surrounding communities who have been afflicted by this disease. They have participated in a number of activities geared at fundraising and providing information for cancer awareness. Operation Inasmuch – Middle Cross Baptist Church participated in Operation Inasmuch on April 25, 2009 with approximately 105 participants. Mission projects included Nursing Home Visitation and Singing – Tara Plantation and Magnolia Gardens, Gift Bag/Fruit Basket Project, Food Project, Construction of a Handicap Ramp, Clearing Land at Camp Duncan, Little People Project, Pressure Wash, Wood Project and House Painting. NEW HOME: God in all His glory continues to bless NHBC. Although this past year has seen many trials, the blessings have always outweighed them. In January, a seven week class was taught on "How to Build Your Marriage," as well as a four week class on "True Love Waits" held for our young people. In February a pastor search was conducted. We experienced a touch of God's word from many candidates. In June, Pastor Dave Stout became our interim pastor. We are thankful for him and his wife Reba, who held us together and continued on in faithful pursuit of God's work. Pastor Dave and members are also presently working on project restoration. This past August we welcomed Pastor Paul McClure and his family as New Home's pastor. We continue to prayerfully be in God's will and His work. (Lynda Ring, Historian)

OPEN ARMS: We have been blessed with many opportunities to share the good news in our community and elsewhere: Backpack program, Operation Inasmuch in several locations, food and serving for Camp Duncan, helping to support a missionary in South Africa, and the Shoe Box Ministry. We began a New Believer's Class and have started a Sunday night prayer meeting. Our members enjoyed our annual progressive dinner and Baptist Men's Day was a blessing to all. Our WMU is active in missions projects which include candy for the Women's Prison Ministry and our annual back to school party for community youth and children. We are blessed to have Brittany Balducci, who was a Mundo Vista counselor this summer, to also be selected as an Acteen State Panelist Board Member. WMU also helped in a very successful VBS. Our Youth continue to be very active in missions, including cookies for Camp Duncan workers, a cake walk for food for Cameron Boys Home, and attending Camp Duncan Dedication Day. They also had a Valentine's Party for church members and did a prayer walk in our church area. They enjoyed the Winterfest concert in Fayetteville. (Belinda McNeill)

PINEHURST: During this church year we have hired a new music director, Mr. Jesse Davis. Mr. Davis is an accomplished pianist and has traveled around the world playing in a number of concerts. He is working with our entire music program. Emphasis on prayer through our prayer groups is still one of our leading programs. A number of prayer groups have been formed and are meeting throughout the week. Our youth are active in a number of areas: discipleship training, weekly prayer meetings, and a week at Caswell are some of the main spiritual emphasis offered through our youth program. Our church has approved a long range plan. Approval for the future physical buildings will be taken to the county planning board in the near future. A double wide mobile unit has been recently brought in to provide for more space for youth and for new Sunday School classes.

PLEASANT HILL: We look forward to a new church year and continue to seek God's guidance and His will as we continue our journey of faith. The congregation has had a full year of opportunities to serve Christ. On November 8 a grief seminar, "An Empty Chair at the Table," taught us to pray and encourage those who have lost loved ones as we enter the holiday season. We held a Thanksgiving candlelight service. On December 8 a ordination service was held for Associate Pastor Brad Marona. We went Christmas caroling at St. Joseph of the Pines, Elmcroft and to shut-ins. The youth play was entitled "Peace When There Is No Peace." The adult choir cantata was entitled "Hope Has Hands." The church has purchased a new red van for our mission work. The Baptist Men have been busy with community projects and participating in the associational wide "Inasmuch Project." We had 5 projects going on at the same time. Our VBS was a great success this year, with several commitments of salvation. We have baptized 10 people this year and several more joined our congregation by letter. Our free yard sale is always a success, but this year the people just kept coming and we gave away more than 50 bags of school supplies to the children who came. The Relay for Life team has been very busy this year raising money for cancer. They have been having all kinds of activities to raise money. Our "Love Feast" for Thanksgiving was a success, with a large number of people attending. We also had a Christmas play and cantata. Rev. Dr. J. Billy Graham, Director of Missions Emeritus, completed 18 months as interim pastor on August 2.

ROBBINS: For the new church year, a Fall Festival was held at RFBC on October 29. Through games, food and worship, there was a church wide mission opportunity to do outreach in the community. It proved to be a success with over 160 people attending! November 16-19 was the "Here Am I, Send Me Missions Revival." Prayer times were scheduled one hour prior to each service. Following each service, light refreshments were served to allow a social fellowship time. The following speakers presented each night of the Missions Revival. The final night on November 19 was headlined by Joanne Honeycutt who is the coordinator for the Medical/Dental Bus Ministry with the Baptist State Convention. Baptist Men and Youth Day occurred on December 13. This mission project helps the senior adults with any odd jobs at their homes. Some of the tasks completed were yard work, gutter cleaning, small repair/paint jobs, etc. December 21st morning worship service was highlighted by the adult choir cantata presentation of "An Evening in December". The children's choir presented "The Christmas County Spelling Bee" for the evening service. This was followed by a church-wide Christmas fellowship. The end of 2008 was concluded with a New Year's Eve Family Celebration on December 31 from 7:00 to 12:00 midnight. The evening included devotion, special prayer times, story/humor sharing, and a family movie complete with drinks, popcorn and snacks. On January 25, Baptist Men's Day was celebrated by beginning with breakfast. Special music was provided by the all male choir. Personal testimony was given by Sammy Gilmore and there was a special recognition for Bradley Comer, the 2008 Layman of the Year. Pastor Kenneth McNeill led a study series, "Every Man's Battle", which began on March 10 and ended May 5. April 11 and 12 were the dates for presentation of the Easter cantata, "He's Alive!" The choir and cast members performed on Saturday evening and again on Sunday morning. Baptist men and youth conducted a mission project on April 4. Any senior adults needing help with small projects/repairs contacted the Baptist men. May 15 was BBQ day at RFBC. Plates were served and ordered as take-out from 10:30 to 6:00. It was a sellout and all proceeds went toward youth camp expenses. Sunday, May 17 was a Commissioning Service for Cliff Hobbs as he left his position as Minister of Youth and Family Life to become an agricultural missionary. Designated funds for agricultural missions were collected as part of the service. A RFBC member, Marie Collins, was also commissioned as a summer camp counselor. This event was followed by a covered dish lunch for the church and invited guests. On June 14, RFBC hosted a Lifestyle Evangelism Revival led by the dynamic Marty Dupree, who is Team Leader of the Evangelism and Church Growth Team for the Baptist State Convention. Sister churches collaborated with RFBC in planning and choir practices to prepare for the 1st Northern Moore Crusade, "That Moore May Know Christ" which occurred from September 20-22. (Gail Page)

SOUTHERN PINES: In September of 2008, the music ministry of First Baptist Church, Southern Pines, initiated a new program for preschoolers using the international Musikgarten curriculum. Designed as an interactive experience for babies, toddlers, preschoolers and their parents and taught by certified, licensed instructors on Mondays, the ministry serves young families in the Sandhills. First Baptist, Southern Pines, dedicated a new educational building and renovated youth space. They celebrated their senior pastor, Dr. David Helms', 25th anniversary with the church. They supported a college mission trip to Honduras in May and a youth mission trip to Chicago with the youth choir and handbells singing and ringing in churches in Kentucky and at Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago. Part of the youth worked at Pacific Garden Mission, others did renovations at Lord's Way Baptist Church in Chicago. (Cos Barnes)

TAYLOR MEMORIAL: We started off the new church year with a Fall Festival that included a silent auction, cake walks, and games for the children. Proceeds from these activities were divided with the Fanny Mae-Heck Jones Offering and the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. Our church continues to focus on missions with the men assisting the Lions Club in distributing food to the needy and doing repairs for the elderly. Several members are involved with preparing lunch for the workers at Camp Duncan. We also continue to prepare lunch monthly for the Manna Program. "Spirit Night" was held in January at Chick-fil-A to raise money for two of our members mission trip to Nicaragua. Jerry Wilson and Ashley McIntyre spent one week in Nicaragua. While in Nicaragua, their team helped build a chicken house, wire a girls dorm for the child protection center and held a Bible School. The medical team went to remote villages and gave out medicine, eyeglasses and hope to villagers. On Good Friday, April 10, 2009, the Durham Rescue Mission hosted an Easter Party. During the Easter Party, thousands of homeless or "less fortunate" people received a hot meal and an Easter basket. While they were at the party, the children played games and won many toys donated by local businesses. The attendees also had the opportunity to visit the clothes "closet" and take anything they thought might be useful to them. We had thirteen workers help with the cooking, distributing Easter baskets and assisting in the clothes closet. On March 14, 2009, we had two members participate in the St. Baldrick's head shaving to raise money for kid's cancer research. Stephen Cox and Chelsea Thomas raised well over $1500.00 by shaving their heads. One of our members, Joe Mancos, helped organize this annual event. Alicia Cox participated in the State RA Race on April 4, 2009. To fulfill the requirement to participate, Alicia presented her mission project-Beanie Babies Abroad. Over several months, she and her Sunday school class collected more than 200 beanie babies. She found the name of soldiers at and sent the beanie babies for them to distribute to the local children. Alicia's mission project won first place in the 4th through 6th grade entries. Later that day, Alicia and her car won first place in the 4th through 6th grade GA car race. Lillie Needham and Alicia Cox participated in our Church Bible Drill on March 18, 2009. They learned 25 verses, 10 key passages and were able to locate books of the Bible in less than 10 seconds. Both girls were winners at the church level by scoring at least 16 of 24 possible points. March 29, Lillie and Alicia participated in the Associational Bible Drill at Ives Memorial and once again were winners. Alicia Cox continued on to the State Bible Drill in Fayetteville on May 2, 2009. Alicia was a State Winner, once again scoring greater than 20 out of a possible 24 points. Alicia was also recognized for knowing the plan of salvation. Lillie was in the 3rd grade, therefore, she could not continue to the State Drill. Bible Drill is growing at our Church with 5 active participants for the 2009/2010 church year. The Youth of Taylor Memorial Church have recently completed a church-wide cookbook. They also attended the Spring Youth Rally at Mill Stone. (Janice Thomas, clerk)

VASS: Our staff additions include Bradley Morgan, pianist, and Kenneth Schroeder, Youth Pastor. Dr. Kenneth Tan, Multicultural Ministries Director with the State Baptist Convention was our Homecoming and Fall Revival speaker. Our church began a Children In Action group, and we provided support for the opening of Camp Duncan. III. Constitution of the Sandhills Baptist Association

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this corporation shall be "The Sandhills Baptist Association, Inc.," hereinafter referred to as "association."

ARTICLE II - PURPOSES AND OBJECTIVES

Section 1. The Sandhills Baptist Association Inc. shall consist of messengers who are members of duly elected affiliated churches.

Section 2. The objectives of this association shall be to promote fellowship, missions, associations, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and the Southern Baptist Convention in all work of Southern Baptists.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP AND AFFILIATIONS

Section 1. The Sandhills Baptist Association Inc. shall consist of messengers who are elected members of affiliated churches.

(1) Each church affiliated with this association having a membership up to one hundred members shall be entitled to four messengers and one additional messenger for every fifty members or major fraction thereof, thereafter. No church, however, shall be entitled to more than eight messengers.

(2) Pastors of the affiliated churches and their missions and other full-time paid professional staff.

(3) Duly elected officers of the association, department directors, chairpersons of all standing committees and the director of missions.

Section 2. Affiliations:

(1) The churches affiliated with this association shall be churches who use the New Testament as a statement of faith and church policy, and who teach that a person upon profession of faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord will be immersed in water, unless providentially hindered, to qualify for church membership. In this and other doctrinal matters, the association subscribes to The Baptist Faith and Message adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention, May 9, 1963.

(2) Churches shall be received into this fellowship only after having been under watchcare of the association for one full year. Application for membership shall be made through the Credentials Committee. The Association Board shall have the authority to receive any church under watchcare upon recommendation of the Credentials Committee.

(3) Baptist churches affiliated with and in fellowship with other Baptist associations may become affiliated with the association without coming under the watchcare, upon the recommendation of the Credentials Committee and the approval of the Association Board or the association.

(4) The Association shall only have the authority to advise the churches touching all things pertaining to their interest, but shall in no case presume to direct or control them in reference to their government or internal policy. The association recognizes the complete autonomy of each affiliated church. Each church shall recognize the complete autonomy of the association.

(5) Whenever a church fails to be represented by letter at the annual meeting, or fails to show interest by financial support and attendance at associational meetings for two consecutive years, or reportedly violates Section 2, (1) of this article, the moderator shall ask the Credentials Committee to confer with the church. If satisfactory reason is not given and there is not effort to keep alive their association with the cooperating churches, the Credentials Committee shall bring its findings to the association. The association, by majority vote of its messengers casting ballots, may then withdraw its fellowship. The association recognizes that any affiliated church has the right to withdraw its fellowship from the association but requests a church making such a decision to notify its intention in writing to the association.

ARTICLE IV - MEETINGS

Section 1. The time of the annual meeting shall be Monday and Tuesday after the third Sunday in October.

Section 2. In case of emergency, or for just cause, the Association Board is empowered to change the time or place of the meeting, cancel the annual meeting, or call a special meeting by vote of two-thirds of the members when the vote is taken and by giving two weeks' notice if possible.

Section 3. Voting in the association meetings shall be limited to the duly elected officers and messengers as set forth in Article III, Section I.

Section 4. A quorum shall consist of messengers from a majority of the affiliated churches.

3. Director of Missions Report

Have you noticed there have been changes around us? It might seem a foolish question, but our response to these changes can be neither foolish nor thoughtless reactions. The trees are starting to lose their leaves. The days are shorter, the nights longer, and the average temperatures each day are dropping. We accept these changes as natural and inevitable. We adjust. We make changes accordingly.

We must recognize and accept that the same process is happening all around us on a spiritual level. Nowhere in scripture did God ever say that sinful influences would decrease before the return of his Son. Nowhere in scripture does God ever say that passing a bunch of manmade laws would usher in the Kingdom of God on earth. Nowhere in scripture did God ever say that his children can retire from Kingdom work. He did say, however, that his Church was to be at work in the world until he took it home.

We are an association facing change, perhaps more in a shorter period of time than at any point in our history. We must be bold and courageous to face the change, work with the change, direct the change as we can, and never lose the message we have to share with our world. We must evaluate every option at our disposal. We must think in Kingdom terms, not in local church terms. We must count faithfulness to the message of God above faithfulness to traditions, to methods, to programs, and to facilities.

In this last year we have become more aware of how the expansion of Ft. Bragg will impact our area. Our region can expect to see a population increase of more than 2000 people each year for the next several years. They will be people unfamiliar with our lifestyle and complete strangers to our local church traditions. We can expect the overwhelming majority of them to be unchurched. Christ died for every one of them. Our congregations must be ready to incorporate these people through lifestyle Christianity as well as invite them to be a part of our times of worship.

Our resort attractions will continue to bring in large numbers of tourists who will find in our area places they will see as options for future retirement. Though we will not see many of these people on Sunday mornings in our churches, we will see them in our businesses. These potential future members of our communities must find in us warm and welcoming spirits that will lead them to ask more about our personal lives.

These last twelve months have seen us welcome a new congregation, Harmony Baptist Church, into our associational fellowship. Doors have been opened to begin mission planting efforts in the eastern and central parts of the association. Through the generosity of Ashley Heights Baptist Church, we are well on the way to realizing our dream of having a block party trailer to be used in evangelistic efforts by our churches.

To reach a greater number of people with the vision of world missions, we have changed our missions fair into a missions celebration. Two more members of our congregations were recipients of associational mission scholarships this year. We had 21 churches and over 1000 individuals involved in Operation Inasmuch projects in April. A great foundation has been laid for greater mission efforts.

We have entered into partnerships with our Baptist State Convention that will allow us to have intensive training for our Sunday School leadership and our pastors in early 2009. We are adding information to our web site about other schools offering distance learning opportunities for our ministers and laity. New materials are being added to our holdings at the Resource Center to support a growing emphasis upon discipleship training.

After long discussions and much prayer, your Finance Committee is stepping up to ask the churches of the Sandhills Baptist Association to support an increase in our annual budget. We know economic times are difficult, but they pale in light of the terrible lostness of the people around us. Through an expanded budget we will be able to support a third individual going from our association on a mission trip outside our state boundaries. Through that same budget, we as an association are partnering with FBC Robbins to assist in funding a bilingual, bivocational associate pastor who will help develop that multicultural congregation. Extra funding is being directed toward new church starts in our area. Work with Latinos and the growing military community must increase both in intensity and quality if we are to be found faithful before God.

To support the work in our changing region, I have devoted more time to assisting individual churches. In this past year I have led extensive discipleship classes at Ives Memorial Baptist Church, FBC Robbins, and multiple Sunday School leadership training seminars at Lemon Springs. Besides our regular "Spotlight" newsletter, monthly emails are sent from the Resource Center to all of our ministers, our bivocational ministers, and soon a new one will be going to our team leaders to provide additional information and encouragement. Your association continues to provide training materials for our bivocational ministers and supports a dialogue group of pastors from small communities that meets once per quarter. Scholarships have allowed pastors to attend conferences outside the association that will impact their churches.

Change will happen whether we want it to happen or not. We can ignore it and be destroyed by it. We can simply go along with it and be absorbed by it. We also have the option of accepting the fact that change will occur, but our God is bigger than any change on earth. We can surrender ourselves to God, be used by him to affect the change, and continue to be the change agents in our sinful society that God has called us to be. May 2009 find us faithful and willing to make the sacrifices necessary to get the job done.

Tom Lamkin
Director of Missions

2. Discipleship Training Report

How awesome it is that Jesus has entrusted us with this Gospel. We need only go back to the instruction Jesus gave to those first disciples and examine that most often quoted passage of Matthew 28: 19 & 20 as written, "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Our Resource Center wants to help each church in accomplishing this instruction. There, you will find many training materials that you can sign out. I encourage you to examine these personally in our Library or review a list of these resources by going to the Association's website at www.sandhillsbaptist.org. In addition, you can view the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina's resource list at www.ncbaptist.org. Both libraries loan out a variety of discipleship training resources that are already paid for by your contributions and you can use them at no additional cost.

We praise and thank the Lord for all the wonderful things that He is doing throughout churches in the Sandhills Baptist Association. We are especially thankful for all that is being done for our Lord in the areas of prayer and evangelism. This past year we saw our churches reach out to our communities in many different ways with the gospel message. We thank the Lord for all of the seeds that have been sown this past year through these different outreaches (everything from joint worship services to community wide cookouts to door to door evangelism and so many more). We look forward to a great harvest of souls in this coming year for our churches and we rejoice in the souls that have been saved this past year through our prayers and outreach. Remember in this upcoming church year that our Lord Jesus Christ said that "the harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth laborers into His harvest." (Matt. 9:37-38).

We would also like to give a special thanks to all the churches and individuals who made Operation Inasmuch such a wonderful success in April. What a great day it was, as we had so many folks ministering for our Lord throughout our county in so many different ways. Again, we would like to say thank you to each and every one of you that made it such a wonderful day. We would ask you to continue to plan ways that we can minister to our communities in the upcoming months.

Rev. Gregg Newton, Team Leader

4. Library Media Report

The library at the Association Office is an untapped resource for our churches, many of which do not have libraries of their own. The materials can be used by individuals or groups to help with Bible studies, missions work and personal Christian growth. Many thanks to churches and individuals who have donated materials and resources.

If anyone has materials they would like to share with others in our association feel free to contact the Director of Missions or myself.

Library Team Leader

5. Missions Report

This past year has seen our association take significant strides in addressing the spiritual condition of our region. These steps have involved financial investment, time investment, and investments in our communities beyond our church walls. We have seen our churches truly act like God's people at work in the world.

For several years we have had a missions fair in February to assist in educating our congregations about mission project opportunities. In 2008 the focus was changed to reflect more the joy and celebration we feel as we are involved in mission work. The focus this first time was on youth involvement. That same theme will be carried over into 2009.

April saw the Sandhills Baptist Association participate in the largest simultaneous Operation Inasmuch project ever attempted. Over 1,100 of our members representing 21 churches went out into their communities to perform acts of love and mercy without charge and in the name of the Lord. We are looking forward to having a repeat of this project in our association in 2009 and join with all North Carolina Baptists for another statewide event in 2010.

Many of our churches sent out individuals and teams on mission projects that involved work in North Carolina, other states, and in foreign countries. These involved Vacation Bible Schools, revivals, leadership training events, new construction and renovation, and disaster relief. Two members of these teams received scholarship support from the association. We hope through an expanded budget to provide support for a third person in 2009.

Through the generosity of Ashley Heights Baptist Church, we have a 7 x 12 foot trailer that will be transformed into a block party/celebration ministry tool to be used by our churches in evangelistic efforts. When fully prepared, the trailer will be equipped with evangelistic materials, a power generator, sports equipment, popcorn and snow cone machines, tables and chairs, sound system, and more. Ideal uses will include local block parties, local festival participation, and publicity for major church events.

The association has been approached about starting a new mission in the Mt. Pleasant area east of Lobelia and Vass. Also efforts will soon start to determine interest in mission Bible studies in the Eastwood region in the center of the Sandhills Association. Please keep these new work possibilities in your prayers.

Work continues among the Hispanic community in Robbins with recent attendance in their Spanish service exceeding sixty people. We will continue to support this work through their bilingual associate pastor. Other areas of our region also need focused ethnic ministries. This includes ESL classes and Bible studies in the heart language of the people we are seeking to reach.

Finally we are pleased to see our churches continuing to recycle their used Bible study material through our associational office and the Pilgrim Tract Society of Randleman, NC. This is just another way we are able to do missions beyond our church walls.

Scott Yow and Tom Lamkin

6. Music Report

While the 15th annual ChoirSing presented more challenges than last year, the people who attended who have talked to myself and others involved have said they received a richer blessing than ever before. I say, "To God be the glory!" God taught me a valuable lesson in organizing this year's service, but once I "let go and let God", He provided the blessing and His glory showed through. Once again we were excited to have two churches come and be a part of the service for the very first time. All the choirs did a splendid job in ministering through their music. And we were fortunate to have Dean Stockwell provide ChoirSing with his sound system. It richly enhanced the sound for the service and helped the choirs in the presentation of their music. Also this year's service was video taped by Chris Morgan. He has provided DVD's to the churches involved and those DVD's should be in their hands at the printing of this report. Although I am grateful for those who participated and attended, both were down this year. After consulting with Bro. Tom and Patty, I have taken steps to address those issues by issuing a survey letter to member churches and asking them what needs to be done to make ChoirSing better and better attended. Please be in prayer as we seek God's will and guidance for the future of ChoirSing.

Also this summer, we accomplished our goal of cataloging our music library at the SBA building. If you are interested in getting a copy of the catalog listing, please contact Patty or myself and we'll be glad to get that information to you.

Bryan Foster, Music Team Leader

7. Pastoral Ministries Report

Efforts to support the work of the pastors of our association have been focusing upon both their spiritual needs and competency improvement. A ministers prayer group, cluster groups of pastors meeting for support, recommended books and short reviews are ongoing ministry efforts coming from the associational office.

In September, a joint pastor and deacon training session taught by Russ Conley was offered to our pastors and deacons of our churches.

Support for our bivocational ministers continues with written material, monthly emails, and occasional meetings to talk about concerns of the bivocational minister.

Discussion on a Care-Net Community Counseling Center is scheduled for Oct. 16. This will look at the possibility of having a Christian counselor provided by the Baptist Hospital located in this area for referrals by local pastors.

Also scheduled is a prayer retreat for pastors and staff at Caraway Retreat Center in November.

David Marks, Pastoral Ministries Team Leader

8. Senior Adult Report

Our nation as a whole is facing the aging of the Boomer Generation, seventy million strong and starting to enter retirement age in the next three years. As a target area for retirees, our Sandhills region already receives a greater proportion of its influx of new residents in the over sixty-five age bracket than do other areas. Offering effective and high quality ministry to both those already in our churches and the new retirees on the way is an absolute necessity for our churches.

Over the past many years, associational leadership have focused upon an annual banquet and evening of entertainment for the senior adults in our midst. It is time we moved beyond meals and guest speakers and allowed our older members to become the powerful force for the Kingdom of God they were designed to be. They each have a personal story about life in Christ they are called to share with others. They have years of experience to use in undergirding the work of the Kingdom of God. They have insights to share even as they transfer the reins of leadership over to a younger generation while they themselves move into new areas of work and ministry.

Upon your approval, Charles Hammond will become our next Senior Adult Team Leader. Already we have had initial conversations concerning the role our churches can play in encouraging our senior adults to remain as active and growing witnesses for Jesus Christ in their daily lives. A Christian never reaches total Christlikeness. Growth must be a constant goal. Our churches must be involved in efforts that will allow our senior adults to be active workers in God's Kingdom. For those still working in the marketplace, their lives must be a constant witness to God's saving grace. In leisure activities God's grace must be clearly evident. Volunteer opportunities can open other doors to testify to the work of Jesus Christ. Senior adults must seek out ways to be God's missionaries in their communities and beyond and not be content to retire from God's work.

This next year must be one in which we see our older members take the lead in rejecting status quo and maintenance thinking. Living things can never stay the same. Change must occur. Our senior adults have seen a lot of change. They can show us how to face it, accept it, and use it to create a stronger church in an ever-changing society.

Tom Lamkin

9. Sunday School Report

By now our Churches have elected new Sunday School Superintendents and Teachers. Some may have remained the same; whichever, I'm sure these are spirit filled people that the Lord has chosen for this time for this need. I have served the Sandhills Baptist Association for a few years and it has been a learning experience for me. Brother Tom Lamkin has blessed me with reading material. I have found that some say Sunday School is not relevant in the 21st century. Don't you buy into that. Sunday School is a great way to carry out the Great Commission of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I have been reading Allan Taylor's book, "The Six Core Values of Sunday School." His work has blessed me. The six values are: reaching people, teaching people, ministering to people, involving people, assimilating people, (absorbing people), and building relationships with people. Sunday School works. We have to get back to the fundamentals of reaching people. Put some kind of plan to work for you and your church, and for the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

11. Youth Report

The Youth Ministry team met monthly throughout the fiscal year. Of the churches that were represented, great passion was present for equipping the youth leaders of our association to accomplish their goals. This committee tried on several occasions to host events which would benefit the associational youth leaders. The efforts of this committee are described in the following paragraphs.

In order to gain a handle on the issues that our youth leaders would have interest in learning about, our committee sent out a survey to all churches. The survey was truly brief and required that the church representative either bring it with them to our meeting, or fax it to Patty Lunday, Administrative Assistant. Two attempts were made to determine the needs of our associational youth leaders. Out of over 30 churches in our association, less than 10 surveys were returned. Our committee determined to begin planning events based on the surveys we had received.

We scheduled a "Coffee Break" event where youth leaders were invited to come together at Emmanuel Baptist Church. A representative from the Raleigh office was scheduled to present a couple of seminars to our attendees on the "hot topics" facing our youth and youth leaders today. Games, brainstorming sessions, and food were planned for this date. The event was cancelled due to several issues. First, the Raleigh office would not return emails or phone calls. In spite of this fact, the committee members had planned to step in and present the seminars in place of the scheduled speaker. Second, was the fact that no one in our association planned to attend.

Next, we determined to host a youth rally at the Carthage Fairgrounds. This event was cancelled due to lack of participation, as well.

For the most part, three churches were represented throughout the year. Through our fellowship on this committee, our youth groups have gotten together for some events and they were a success each time.

Our committee enjoyed meeting together, and some friendships have been established that may not have happened otherwise. We praise God for His goodness and hope that the committee next year will be able to find a way to connect with the associational youth leaders for the benefit of God's Kingdom.

Charla and Dexter Matthews, Team Leaders

5. Ordination Council Report

The Associational Ordination Council was called upon to meet twice this year. The First Baptist Church of Southern Pines asked us to interview Ms. Kelly Rhodes and Ms. Lorena Arnold in their request to be ordained to the ministry they felt called to. The ordination council was satisfied in both cases of the salvation experiences and the calls to ministry of the Gospel. The Council voted unanimously to recommend to the church that they ordain these to the ministry.

David Marks,
Ordination Council Chairman

6. Property and Grounds Report

For the last few years we have experienced a recurring termite problem at the Associational Building. After again treating the infested areas, we entered into a yearly contract with Aberdeen Exterminating Company.

During the month of March all carpets and tile floors were cleaned.

Last summer's dry weather killed or severely damaged most of our shrubbery around the building. It was determined the plants had about lived their life expectancy. After removing the old ones, 31 new plants were planted, new straw was spread and a drip irrigation system was installed.

Many thanks to the following churches for keeping our grounds looking so good this year: April, Aberdeen; May, Emmanuel; June, Red Branch; July, Carthage; August, Lemon Springs; September, Pinehurst; and October, Cameron.

Respectfully submitted,
Harold Cameron, Chairman

7. Seminary Extension Report

Seminary Extension is only one avenue for Christians to continue their spiritual education. Additional sources of quality materials are being added to our web site's list of cooperating institutions. Most recently Clear Creek Bible College in Kentucky has begun offering a completely online degree in ministry for those seeking a college education. Clear Creek is the Kentucky Baptist equivalent of our own Fruitland Bible Institute.

Lay people are encouraged to take advantage of these opportunities to continue their biblical education under the guidance of professional educators. These in depth studies are not for ordained ministers only. Every Christian has the obligation to grow in wisdom and knowledge when it comes to the Scriptures and the Christian walk. You are encouraged to explore the many ways you can grow as you proceed through your spiritual journey through continuing education and discipleship training.

Tom Lamkin

8. Credentials Committee Report

The Credentials Committee this past year recommended that Harmony Baptist Church be admitted into the membership of the Sandhills Baptist Association. After completing a year of watch-care, the Association, in the June Board Meeting, unanimously voted to receive Harmony Baptist Church into the Association. We are grateful to the Reverend Bob Morrison for his gracious leadership as Pastor of Harmony Baptist Church and the way he prepared and led the church through this process.

The GAs sponsored Christmas in August, collecting school supplies for West Virginia children. Four girls attended camp at Mundo Vista. (Carolyn Allen, WMU Director)

BEAVER CREEK: In April 2008 the church launched a new Prayer Ministry and in July we launched a new Military Ministry.

BETHLEHEM: Bethlehem Baptist Church has had a busy year under the direction of Dr. Zeb Moss who is serving as our interim pastor. A love gift was given to Lisa Perry, a missionary to China. Our guest speakers for the W.M.U. Focus Sunday were Rev. Paul and Mrs. Ressie Bishop. Bethlehem hosted the Associational W.M.U. Prayer Retreat. The leader was Mrs. Phyllis Elvington. Toiletries were delivered to residents at Tara Plantation. Bethlehem hosted a celebration for Dr. and Mrs. Zeb Moss, for their 56th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Evelyn Moss participated in the poverty simulation training in Raleigh, N.C. Several W.M.U. members went to the Open House at the W.M.U.'s new offices in Raleigh, N.C. Children's Bible Drills are being held each 1st and 3rd Wednesday of each month under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Moss. The R.A. leaders sponsored a children and members hayride float in the Carthage Christmas Parade. Toboggans were knitted by the G.A.'s and Ateens for the K-Challenge, Cameron Boy's Camp, the nursery of First Health Moore Regional Hospital and Friend to Friend. The V.B.S. offering of $200. was sent to assist in purchasing water filters for victims of the Myanmar cyclone. Nine children and five adults attended the "Rootin Tootin" Missions Rally at Taylor Memorial. A Church-wide fellowship, with a Christian movie and snacks, is being held during the months with a 5th Wednesday. For Christmas in August, money was donated to a missionary couple who work with the many children in Kentucky. School supplies were donated for every grade level at Carthage Elementary School. "The Christian Cheer Group honored the fathers by hosting a breakfast on Father's Day." (Kay Robbins, clerk)

BEULAH HILL: During the past year, several significant events occurred at Beulah Hill Baptist Church. Brother Bryan Maness was licensed to preach by the Church in October 2007 and ordained as a Minister on February 24, 2008. He was immediately called as the new Associate Pastor and Youth Director. Brothers John Reese, Johnny Williamson and Reverend Maness went to Honduras on Mission Trips in December 2007 and August 2008. Many souls were saved because of their tireless efforts. Beulah Hill Baptist Church initiated a Building Fund in 2007 to be used to purchase land and construct a new facility whenever and wherever the Lord leads. Contributions have been generous and the fund is well over $60,000. A History of Beulah Hill Baptist Church, which traced the church from its beginnings in 1895 to the present, was published in March 2008. On April 27, 2008, a Special Recognition Ceremony was conducted to honor Brother Wilbur Calcutt. Brother Calcutt was honored for his many years of service to the church in numerous capacities. A revival was conducted by Dr. David Shepherd from September 14-17, 2008. (Bill Stripling)

CALVARY: Calvary Baptist Church has been very active in reaching out into the community as well as inspiring and encouraging members to find their focus in serving God, through Sunday nights GC training and Wednesday night's prayer meetings and Sunday morning services. Pastor Brad Harrison and his wife, Amy, have celebrated two years in August of serving the LORD at Calvary. Rev. Ron Harrison was our Fall 2007 revival speaker. He is the Baptist Associational Director for Yadkin Valley in Statesville, NC. "Old Timers Day" was celebrated the Sunday before Thanksgiving with a meal after the Sunday Morning worship service. There were several generations of different dress, from the days of late 1800's to the 1970's. Some of the activities that church members attended were going Christmas caroling into the community as well as singing to the Pine Lake Retirement Center residents in Carthage. Fruit bags were given to the residents as well as to everyone who attended our annual Christmas play. The play program was performed for two nights. "Operation Inasmuch" brought out everyone for the day to participate in creating beautiful flower pots and "surprise bags" for delivery in the community. The pots were delivered by witnessing teams to residents within the surrounding area of Calvary who were currently not actively attending a church. The bags were delivered by young people with chaperones to Pine Lake Retirement Center, in which every room was visited. The day was very successful in touching people's lives, including the members of Calvary. Vacation Bible School, the theme of "Power Lab," was held in August with a surprising number of non-members as well as members, in attendance. The five night Bible school was very energetic with several member teams working every night to make it successful for the young people who attended. The youth of the church have been active in group fellowship this past year by attending The Judgment House, going to Carowinds, bowling, and attending a Greensboro Grasshoppers baseball game. Plans are underway this upcoming year to go to the Fort Caswell Baptist Retreat. Movie night had members and visitors seeing "Facing the Giants" while munching on snacks and popcorn. We supported the Cameron's Boy's Home by having a food drive. Calvary invited representatives and children of the Cameron Boy's Home to be our main speakers during the Sunday morning worship service. They are one of the two mission offerings that we take up one Sunday a month, the Robbins Rescue Squad is the other. We are also active in the support of The Lottie Moon and Annie Armstrong mission offerings every year. Pastor Brad is leading us in GC (Great Commission) training on Sunday nights. We attended in the summer an eight week session on "Evangelism" and are currently attending a six week session on "Spiritual Gifts." The Women's Outreach Mission is overseeing the church purchasing a Heartsaver® AED. Other activities this past year were to attend a Women's Retreat at Ridgecrest, supporting two young church members who are currently enrolled in college, purchasing items for bags that went to underprivileged and needy children in the county, and prepared boxes of items to go to a women's prison. A new church directory is currently being printed. A special Sunday night singing in August was held by The Rivertown Boys. To encourage the Sunday School attendance, the superintendents of Calvary meet every quarter with all teachers to get feed-back and to encourage and uplift each other in focusing on God's will for our Sunday School program. Unity, fellowship and growth are goals that we have set for Calvary this past year and through prayers from all of our members, God has allowed us to attain victory through him.

CAMERON: Our theme for 2008 was "New Beginnings". Our pastor, Dr. Wayne Greene, began the year with a very meaningful series of messages on the Fruit of the Spirit. Mission projects this year included: 1) making cookies for the troops in Afghanistan on two occasions, 2) participating in the state-wide Operation In As Much project (76 of our members, ages 4 through senior adults, involved in various projects: installing smoke detectors, meals to shut-ins, crafts at Tara Plantation and gift packages to Pine Lake Nursing Homes, and clean-up and painting at Cameron Boys Camp), 3) Music & Mission (M&M) Kids collected and sent socks to Page Street Baptist Center in San Francisco and also hosted a 'hot potato bar luncheon', raising funds for various mission projects, and 4) working in conjunction with the Marine's "Toys For Tots" project to insure that local children had a wonderful Christmas. The Jessie Loving Circle hosted a Ladies Luncheon with the theme "How Is Your Spiritual Teapot?" led by Cheryl Gilmore. More than 125 ladies attended. Mr. Curtis McLamb was called as our Youth Director/Office Administrator. We welcome him and his wife, Christina. With the start of a new Sunday School year in September, our Director challenged our church to have 100 in attendance: we had 120! We are excited by what God is doing in and through our Church. The New Year looks even more promising. (Ruby Hendrick, Historian)

CARTHAGE: In October 2007, First Baptist Church said good-bye to our Youth and Children's Director Amanda McDonald who served in that position for two years. Carthage First Baptist continues to support Baptist Children Homes, Lottie Moon, Annie Armstrong, and Cameron Boys Home through our special offerings. Vacation Bible School was held August 4th-8th with approximately 35 children attending. On July 4th our Baptist Men and Women were involved in mission and outreach during the Carthage Fourth of July Celebration. During the morning hot-dogs, cokes, water, and cookies were served. Also handed out were church brochures, religious tracts, and flags to all who visited our site. Our Baptist Men and Women continue to support the Samaritans Purse project. Our WMU continued with projects locally and abroad. Tara Plantation residents were given a Valentine Party. Clothing Items were collected for boys and girls at Carthage Elementary. Care packages were created for our soldiers serving in Iraq. Our Baptist Men continue to collect Campbell Soup labels, computer cartridges, aluminum coke tabs, and sponsored a food round up for our Baptist Children Homes. Our Discipleship Training leader continued to offer us many opportunities to hear God's Word through DVD and CD's. Our church welcomed 12 new members during 2007-08. Our adult activities leaders planned many wonderful trips for our senior adults as well as others in the community. Children in Action met each Wednesday night for Bible study and singing. (Ann Lynch, clerk)

EAGLE SPRINGS: Our church year began with the homecoming service in September, at which time Dr. Michael Blackwell, President of Baptist Children's Homes of NC, delivered the message. Eagle Springs Baptist Church continues to be a mission minded church with participation in local, state, national and international missions and projects. One of our special interests is Baptist Children's Home, and we also celebrate Founders Day with Cameron Boys Home. Our WMU is small in number but we are dedicated to the cause for which it stands and ready to assist, participate and donate to the many projects and areas of need in the field of missions. In May the WMU honored the senior citizens at a Senior Banquet, with music by the Livengoods and a delicious meal prepared by the WMU. A major accomplishment by the church this year was the purchase of a new Yamaha piano, replacing the one we have had for 54 years. We lost three members through death this year. We concluded our church year on August 31, 2008 with a retirement luncheon honoring our pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Hinson, who retired on that day. (Irene Thomas, historian)

EMMANUEL: Emmanuel participated in the Backpack Pals project throughout the year, hosted by Moore County Schools. In December a Feed My Sheep ministry delivered meals and the Word to people in need in the community. The van ministry picked up children from the Carolina Lakes community for Wednesday night youth groups. A Health/Back to School Fair provided various health checks, clothes, school supplies and backpacks for needy children. The Carpenters for Christ ministry continues to assist in meeting needs throughout the community. (Susan Cook, Church Clerk)

EPHESUS: Ephesus started our 122nd year with Rev. David A. Thomas, Sr. as pastor. Revival was held Oct. 7-12, 2007 with Dr. Curtis Barbery. In our Veteran's Day service the American and Christian flags were presented to the church by the Woodmen of the World. Ephesus' Wade Childress assisted in the ceremony. "Finding a Christmas Star" was presented by the youth, and the Shekinah Glory Players and the Chancel Choir presented "The Power of the Cross" to the church on Easter Sunday. Missions opportunities included: Operation Christmas Child, Christmas and Easter cookies and Christmas cards sent to the military, flannel shirts for Cameron Boys Home, annual food drive for Baptist Children's Homes, food and supplies for the GA Camp, and A teens sponsored Super Bowl Sunday by collecting canned soups for a local food bank. We surpassed our goal of $4,000 for the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering by collecting $5,302. In March the Golden Treasures visited the Billy Graham museum in Charlotte, and several church members attended the Caraway retreat in October. VBS was a success, led by Mary Yow. The church started a e-mail prayer chain with a daily devotional on the site. Sandra Jordan resigned as choir director, and Kim Lilley is interim choir director. Rev. and Mrs. David Thomas started a radio broadcast on WDSG at 93.1 and 107.9 FM, airing from 10:00 a.m.-Noon on Thursdays. The broadcast includes local news, Bible study, Christian music, and invites all to come join in worship at Ephesus Baptist Church. (Bernice Briggs, Historian)

FAIRVIEW: On May 17 the church held a Health and Fitness Fair, with fun and games for children and health and fitness information from many vendors. The FirstHealth Mobile unit was also there. We gave out information about our church and the activities that go on weekly, along with missions information and food. The money raised went to missions. On August 25 Chris Martin, Sr. announced that he felt God's call to preach. We will have a licensing ceremony in October.

HARMONY: Harmony Baptist Church had a great year. We reached our 1st Anniversary as a new church, were accepted as members of the Sandhills Baptist Association, and increased our membership by 13. We held our 1st Annual Coat Drive, and joined up with FirstHealth of the Carolinas Montgomery Memorial Hospital, to collect coats, which allowed us to make donations to Moore and Montgomery Counties. We now have a website, built this year to keep members and visitors updated on our events at HBC. The website address is www.harmonybaptistwestend.org. It includes our Children's Ministry information and photos of events the children participated in throughout the year. We started the "Children in Action" program allowing the children to earn badges as they participated in Missions. We updated our playground equipment and are in the process of adding extra parking in the rear of the church. We saw the need for extra parking as we were amazed when God sent us a record high attendance of 96 to one of our monthly gospel singings.

IVES MEMORIAL: Our Fall Festival was a great outreach to church and unchurched of our community. Several volunteers helped Samaritan's Purse pack and ship shoeboxes for Operation Christmas Child in November. Our annual "Free-For-All" held the Saturday after Thanksgiving, was successful in reaching the needy as well as receiving donations for Lottie Moon. Our youth and children were especially active during the Christmas season, bringing blessings to community children and adults by their gifts and services. Many of our members and guests were glad to be a part of Operation Inasmuch, which left an impression on each participant. We were inspired to live each day in the spirit of Inasmuch. Spring highlights were our Easter egg hunt outreach, and joint Holy Week services with our neighbor, Pinebluff Methodist Church. Our church roof was replaced in May. Our family emphasis services were highlighted by our Family Night at the Lake, a refreshing end to a hot summer. Respectfully submitted by Betty Hardy, Church Clerk

MIDDLE CROSS: The church has started a cancer support group, led by Jessie Kellis, which is held the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month at 7:00 p.m. Our mission is to help others cope with this dreaded disease. At each meeting we have devotions and prayer. We also have a get well card ministry and visitation.

NEW HOME: Our pastor, Donald Edwards, and our associate pastor, Mark Finnila resigned recently. We started a Ladies Low Impact Aerobics class, and sent cookies to soldiers overseas through Operation Cookies. The Moore County Children's Fun Health Fair was held at our church, and we participated in Operation Inasmuch. (Lynda Ring, Historian)

OPEN ARMS: We moved into our new church home, Nov. 2007. We had a prayer dedication Nov. 24, 2007. Our first Sunday was Nov. 25, 2007. We had a breakfast and a Thanksgiving meal. We participated in Operation Inasmuch. We did a Progressive Dinner where all church members went to four homes for different meals. Five weeks of Discipleship Training began in February. We hold junior church each Sunday and Active Youth and Children's meetings on Wednesday nights. We hosted a Good Friday service and meal and collected canned goods for Cameron Boys Home. We hosted the Associational WMU annual meeting and celebrated Homecoming June 1st. A Military Appreciation Day was held with breakfast and lunch. We had a record number of children for VBS. Our 4th annual Back to School Party for community children was held. The WMU sewed dresses and did Christmas goody trays for nursing stations at hospital. We helped with the reception for the Moore Free Clinic. We are doing the Five Love Languages program.

PINEHURST: The church participated in missions through Operation Inasmuch, Pinesage block party, Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, Annie Armstrong Offering, NC Baptist Missions Offering and the NC Baptist Children's Home offering. Over 100 shoeboxes were given for Samaritan's Purse. Our youth went to Youth Week at Caswell and our children (grades 4-6) went to a children's retreat in the mountains. Both RAs and GAs attended Caraway and Mundo Vista. Our choir participated in the Associational Choir Sing. A new Sunday School class was started.

PINEYWOOD: The church lawn was reseeded. We helped Brad Marona take Internet courses from Crown College of Tennessee. A new heat pump was purchased for the fellowship hall. A sound system was purchased. A men's fellowship breakfast was begun. An offering of $7,000 was given to Rev. Jimmy Phillips to help with medical bills. We gave money to Johnny and Brenda Bolla to help with their missionary trip to Trinidad and Tobago. We gave money to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Marks for the Ukraine Challenge volunteers to help build churches. The church joined a Soul Winning Club to help in winning lost souls to the Lord. Two hearing aids were purchased for our pastor, Rev. Charles Lassiter. (Shirley Lassiter, Clerk)

PLEASANT HILL: We continue to hold services in the Multi-purpose Building to allow more space for our worship service. Three new ministries were implemented: Mom's Bible Study and Support Group, Kid's Night Out and a Senior Choir. We participated in Operation Inasmuch. Nine mission projects were carried out with the help of many volunteers. The Seniors and Ladies Class compiled a church cookbook.

They enjoyed a trip to the Billy Graham Museum and Library and held a golf outing. Brad Marona was called as Associate Pastor/Minister of Youth. Additional land was donated to the church for the expansion of the cemetery. Over the last year we have had many opportunities to serve God and minister to others. The Youth groups, Brotherhood, children's church, Ladies mission groups and the church music department have all been very active and continue to grow numerically and spiritually. (Kay D. Neff, Historian)

RED BRANCH: Two groups went on missions trips, one to the Holy Land of Israel and the other to Montana to help with VBS and other projects at Big Sky Baptist Church. We held a Thanksgiving "Love Feast," and presented a Christmas cantata and play. Rev. Chris Dickerson resigned as pastor in March to follow a call to another church. Rev. J. Billy Graham is serving as our interim pastor. The church participated in Operation Inasmuch, with nine projects going on at the same time. Many children made professions of faith at our VBS. At a "free yard sale" held in August there were between 300-400 people came by looking for clothing. The children were given over 60 bags of school supplies at the yard sale. Our Youth Evangelistic Program had a "Going Green Day" for the children of the community. Mike Sullivan was licensed to preach. (Mary Muse)

ROBBINS: October 31, 2007 was the beginning of a 13 week course of study entitled, "Disciple's Prayer Life: Walking in Fellowship with God". These group sessions allowed individual choices from the congregation members and also allowed some individual members to lead and teach particular sessions. This study also helped to build a foundation for making the theme, "All Nations" become a reality. The Youth and Family Life Ministry reached out and assisted senior citizens by having a mission project day for those who might need help dealing with fall projects and/or preparations for winter. Dates of December 8 and January 6 were utilized for these mission projects. December really brings out many expressions of love. One expression made by Robbins First Baptist was to disseminate 500 fruit bags throughout the church and community. On December 17, another 100 fruit baskets were delivered to and provided visitation to shut-ins. January 20, 2008 was the beginning of a Sunday evening study, entitled GROW. Having His guidance, resisting temptation, obeying His word, and walking with Him in an intimate relationship are the foundation for this spiritual growth study which allowed adults to choose and sign up for 6-10 week small group sessions. A bilingual morning worship service occurred on February 10. This was a time of celebration of our oneness in Christ through music in Spanish and English and preaching of the word, translated from English to Spanish. This event was followed by a covered dish lunch for continued fellowship. On February 13, the Youth and Family Life Ministry hosted a Valentine supper for the senior adults. These adults received additional honor by having a representative talk about how important this person had been to them and others. Operation In As Much (OIAM) Project Day occurred on April 19. This community wide mission blitz began at 8:00 AM and ended with a 5:00 PM fellowship supper. Over 100 ministry team members were involved in serving 42 families with hands-on projects. Two Backyard Bible Clubs served 19 children and their families. Beautiful potted plants and Easter Care Buckets were created and delivered to 44 persons who were either shut-ins or had experienced a recent crisis in their lives. All participants received a great blessing from this day of giving and sharing in the name of Christ. OIAM was followed by a revival April 20-23, led by Dr. David Borroughs from West End, NC. The focus for this revival was to "be in touch with the needs of people". It provided an opportunity for individual renewal and a closer look at our approach for continued ministry action. The first International Festival was held at Robbins First Baptist on May 10 from 10:00 to 4:00. It was a day of people from different cultures to blend for games, food, preaching, and fun. Sixteen people signed up and traveled to Salt Rock. This mission trip was a meaningful service to one of the poorest and neediest areas of West Virginia. Once again Robbins First Baptist and the Northern Moore Family Resource Center teamed together for a 6 week summer camp for Kindergarten through 8th grade from July 7 through August 14. Each day was fun-filled with organized recreation in the morning and personal development in the afternoon which included character building, reading skills, and Bible lessons. (Gail Page)

SOUTHERN PINES: The membership of First Baptist Church celebrated the completion of their new educational building on Sunday, September 14. They are also celebrating anniversaries. Senior Minister David Helms marked 25 years; Tom Allen, Minister of Education and Administration, 10 years; and Brenda Harrell, financial secretary/clerk, 25 years. During the year there was an adult mission trip to Gulfport, a youth mission trip to New Orleans, and a college trip to Honduras. Members Kelly Rhodes and Lorena Arnold were ordained to the gospel ministry, and MusikGarten, music education for babies through three year olds, was instigated. (Cos Barnes)

TAYLOR MEMORIAL: Rev. Joe Needham was called as our new pastor in December. We held a "Celebration and Installation" service in January. Rev. Needham began his service the first Sunday in February. Most of our members participated in Operation Inasmuch in February. Baptist Men's Ministry Group was organized in March. The Youth of our Church sponsored a Youth Rally and Campout at Camp Millstone in May. (Janice Thomas, clerk)

VASS: We participated in many activities to support our mission statement to be a fellowship of believers united in Christ, sharing His Good News, and revealing His compassion in our homes, our community and around the world this past year. We celebrated homecoming in November with Dr. Tony Cartledge as our guest speaker. This was followed by revival services that week with Rev. Joey Harrell as speaker. One of our largest and very successful ministries was a food and clothing pantry that was established in our church under the organization and direction of Emily Hardy, providing for those in need in our surrounding areas. We also provided food for holiday meals for people in our community. Our minister, Bill Davis, and his wife, Chachy and member Robbie Martin made mission trips to Bolivia to continue ministry and work there. We participated in Operation Inasmuch, Backpack Pals, Women's Prison Ministry and projects at Cameron Boys Camp. Our youth sponsored a Trunk or Treat activity in October and honored our senior adults for Valentine's Day. A Mother's Day breakfast and a Father's Day breakfast were given on those special days for our church family mothers and fathers. Our VBS was held in June.

X. Institutions, Agencies, and Board Reports

Through the working together of sister churches, locally and on the state and national level, we are able to be involved in multiple ministries, much of which we could not do by ourselves. In our own state we are fortunate to have excellent institutions and agencies and dedicated, skilled leaders to make possible many mission ministries. We have more detailed information regarding the work of these institutions and boards in the associational center. Or, you may contact the Baptist State Convention, P O Box 1107, Cary, N C 27511-1107, phone 1-800-395-5102, for information. You may contact any of the following for assistance:

III. Constitution of the Sandhills Baptist Association

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this corporation shall be "The Sandhills Baptist Association, Inc.," hereinafter referred to as "association."

ARTICLE II - PURPOSES AND OBJECTIVES

Section 1. The Sandhills Baptist Association Inc. shall consist of messengers who are members of duly elected affiliated churches.

Section 2. The objectives of this association shall be to promote fellowship, missions, associations, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and the Southern Baptist Convention in all work of Southern Baptists.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP AND AFFILIATIONS

Section 1. The Sandhills Baptist Association Inc. shall consist of messengers who are elected members of affiliated churches.

(1) Each church affiliated with this association having a membership up to one hundred members shall be entitled to four messengers and one additional messenger for every fifty members or major fraction thereof, thereafter. No church, however, shall be entitled to more than eight messengers.

(2) Pastors of the affiliated churches and their missions and other full-time paid professional staff.

(3) Duly elected officers of the association, department directors, chairpersons of all standing committees and the director of missions.

Section 2. Affiliations:

(1) The churches affiliated with this association shall be churches who use the New Testament as a statement of faith and church policy, and who teach that a person upon profession of faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord will be immersed in water, unless providentially hindered, to qualify for church membership. In this and other doctrinal matters, the association subscribes to The Baptist Faith and Message adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention, May 9, 1963.

(2) Churches shall be received into this fellowship only after having been under watchcare of the association for one full year. Application for membership shall be made through the Credentials Committee. The Association Board shall have the authority to receive any church under watchcare upon recommendation of the Credentials Committee.

(3) Baptist churches affiliated with and in fellowship with other Baptist associations may become affiliated with the association without coming under the watchcare, upon the recommendation of the Credentials Committee and the approval of the Association Board or the association.

(4) The Association shall only have the authority to advise the churches touching all things pertaining to their interest, but shall in no case presume to direct or control them in reference to their government or internal policy. The association recognizes the complete autonomy of each affiliated church. Each church shall recognize the complete autonomy of the association.

(5) Whenever a church fails to be represented by letter at the annual meeting, or fails to show interest by financial support and attendance at associational meetings for two consecutive years, or reportedly violates Section 2, (1) of this article, the moderator shall ask the Credentials Committee to confer with the church. If satisfactory reason is not given and there is not effort to keep alive their association with the cooperating churches, the Credentials Committee shall bring its findings to the association. The association, by majority vote of its messengers casting ballots, may then withdraw its fellowship. The association recognizes that any affiliated church has the right to withdraw its fellowship from the association but requests a church making such a decision to notify its intention in writing to the association.

ARTICLE IV - MEETINGS

Section 1. The time of the annual meeting shall be Monday and Tuesday after the third Sunday in October.

Section 2. In case of emergency, or for just cause, the Association Board is empowered to change the time or place of the meeting, cancel the annual meeting, or call a special meeting by vote of two-thirds of the members when the vote is taken and by giving two weeks' notice if possible.

Section 3. Voting in the association meetings shall be limited to the duly elected officers and messengers as set forth in Article III, Section I.

Section 4. A quorum shall consist of messengers from a majority of the affiliated churches.

ARTICLE V - ORGANIZATION

Section 1. Officers: The officers of the association act as the Board of Directors for the Corporation. They serve as legal representatives and act as directed by the messengers to the association, oversee the insurance plan, hold in trust any money, property, endowments and other securities, exercise the power under the instructions of the messengers to hold, buy, sell, and convey property, both real and personal, and to sign papers necessary for the purchase or conveyance, give oversight to employment and dismissal of employees, act on behalf of the messengers under unusual and extreme circumstances, giving a full report to the messengers at their next quarterly meeting. Section 5. 3. Director of Missions Report

This summer I celebrated my fifth anniversary with you as your associational missionary. We are 33 churches strong. We are more unified than at any time I know. We are reaching out into our communities in a greater variety of ways. We are expanding our church facilities even as we are expanding our vision of what God has placed before us as our responsibility. We have seen so much happen, but there is still more to do.

In the last five years we have begun new ministries at our local county fair, giving away literally hundreds of Bibles, evangelistic tracts, Christian life magazines and devotional booklets, and copies of the Jesus film. People have been encouraged and lives changed. We have seen so much happen, but there is still more to do.

We have begun an annual missions celebration in which we rejoice together in sharing what God is accomplishing in our midst. Hundreds have been in attendance and learned what sister churches have been doing. We have joined together in praise. We have seen missions in action. We have been challenged to catch a true mission vision. We have seen so much happen, but there is still more to do.

We have seen our church members leave the security and comfort of their facilities and go forth to prayer walk their communities. Scattered areas around our association have been bathed in prayer. Whole neighborhoods have seen our people out walking, two by two, to ask God's Spirit to move in mighty ways within the homes that are passed. We have seen so much happen, but there is still more to do.

In increasing numbers our people have seen it as no sacrifice to give time, energy, and material resources to help those touched by natural tragedies or held as captives in sin in areas near and far. Even now I still learn of individuals and teams who have traveled in past years to scattered states and distant lands to offer help and hope. Our people have gone to islands. They have gone to continents. They have gone to cities. They have gone to villages and open country. They have gone to work in churches. They have gone to start churches. We have seen so much happen, but there is still more to do.

In this past year we have placed a greater emphasis upon prayer and evangelism, encouraging our churches to make their ministries grounded upon the love of God and his desire that all people might be saved. We have encouraged prayer walking in new areas. We have encouraged making Vacation Bible School an even more important part of our evangelistic outreach efforts. We have tried to emphasize the need to take the gospel outside the walls of the church building so that the church, the Body of Christ, might be seen at work in the marketplaces of the world. We have seen so much happen, but there is still more to do.

In support of our bivocational pastors, we have made resources available to encourage them and support their work in these unique ministry settings. We have created a monthly newsletter just for their needs. They have been put into contact with additional web sites to support them in their efforts. Many of our pastors must be dually supported in some fashion making them bivocational by one definition or another. We have seen so much happen, but there is still more to do.

We have begun to support annually two short term missionaries even while our churches sent out representatives and teams to the far corners of the world. Gulfport, MS has been the recipient of the labors of multiple teams from our association, assisting the residents from the devastation caused by Hurricane Katrina. Teams have gone to Asia, Central America, and across our country in evangelistic efforts. We have seen so much happen, but there is still more to do.

What can we accomplish in the next five years?

We can provide greater support for our growing number of bivocational ministers. We can offer additional training opportunities for them. We can make more material resources available to them lessening their need to travel to find additional educational tools. We can bring experienced bivocational ministers here to make their wisdom readily accessible. We can educate our churches to esteem their pastors and work harder at carrying the load as lay ministers of the gospel.

We can provide a counseling center to support the work of our pastors. The funds have already been set aside for its implementation. We can continue to pursue a partnership with Baptist Hospital that will place a counseling center here in the Sandhills that will have a solid Christian foundation for its work.

We can provide support for church planters striving to reach the rapidly increasing diversity of people living within our associational area. The population of our region is rapidly outstripping the ability of our current churches to meet the evangelistic, ministry, and discipling needs of the thousands coming to be our neighbors. Our ethnic diversity is increasing. We have become a multicultural community. Our evangelistic and church planting efforts must reflect the reality in which we live.

We can positively impact the educational and medical communities we have around Sandhills Community College and FirstHealth Medical Center. These areas represent unique opportunities to influence the lives of people taking advantage of these great institutions. Faithful witnessing by employees, students, and patients can give us effective inroads into these communities.

We can seek to minister to the thousands of guests we receive each year who come to our world renown golf courses through a resort chaplain type program. With over 40 courses some will be open to Bible studies and prayer groups. Some will allow tracts and individual church brochures to be placed in a convenient location.

Prayer walking can increase in numbers and intensity. We can cover with prayer the numerous communities we already have in our area and those that continue to come into existence almost monthly.

We can train our people to be daily witnesses for Christ through lifestyle evangelism out in the marketplace, not waiting for the world to come to us. Lay renewal and lay evangelism weekends can train and encourage our people to fulfill the Great Commission.

We can train our people to be the spiritual leaders that we need today and whom we must have as we move into the future. Discipleship and leadership training can never be viewed as luxury items for a church. The Great Commission does not end with baptism. It includes the demand that we teach those we lead to salvation to be obedient to every word that Jesus gave us. We must disciple those we reach, or we have not been obedient ourselves.

We can enter into partnerships with other areas so that our mission trips become not an effort simply to help strangers in need, but that we will be helping those whom we know by name, those whose daily lives have touched our own in multiple ways at multiple times. It may be with a sister church in our association or elsewhere in our state, our country, or some distant land. Time will build relationships, and these will become mighty forces for the Kingdom of God.

Our association must be about the business of assisting its churches in multiplying Kingdom servants. The association does not do the work of the churches. It must help the churches do the work God has uniquely assigned each one. We have already done so much, but there is still so much that needs to be done. May God find us faithful.

Tom Lamkin
Director of Missions

In addition to my above report I want to share the following article, written by a pastor in my home church when I was a boy nearly 50 years ago.

What Can I Give?

By Leroy Seat, Pastor, Ekron Baptist Church
(retired career missionary to Japan)

Pastor Bigwad and Deacon Longblow are returning home from an associational meeting. They have taken some of their precious time on this specific evening to drive down the road to a neighboring church for this particular meeting. Now they are on their way home and engaged in a favorite pastime of many Baptist preachers and deacons – griping and complaining. Deacon Longblow is the first to speak:

"What a waste of time this has been! There was not a thing presented that we didn't already know. Why should we go to these meetings anyway?"

Pastor Bigwad then takes up the conversation: "You know, Brother Longblow, I think I'll stop encouraging the members of our church to attend these associational meetings – we just don't get a think from them. We have better ways to spend our time."

And thus the conversation goes as the two drive on down the highway.

A conversation like this is heard all too frequently across the state. For this reason, it is fitting that a new look be taken in regard to associational meetings. There is a "more excellent way." The Scriptures lay a foundation for this new approach. In Galatians 6:2 these words are found: "Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." In Romans 15:1 the Bible says: "We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves." Finally, in Romans 12:13 the Revised Standard Version of the Bible reads: "Contribute to the needs of the saints."

From these three Scripture verses there comes the strange idea that the proper attitude and question in connection with associational work (and all types of church related tasks) is not: What can I get? But: What can I give? Proceeding on this assumption, a new light is cast upon the work of the association.

If the churches of the associations of this state were engaged in big business enterprises – which, unfortunately, some may be – instead of spiritual undertakings, it would be understandable why the leaders of such churches would not want to attend promotional meetings that did not help their businesses. Instead of using their time in this way they could be in the local community seeking to enlarge the corporation and oiling the wheels of the organizational machinery. If the churches were businesses, then by the right of competitive enterprise they would be justified in wanting only “to get something” from the joint meetings. But Baptist churches are not – or should not be – big businesses. The same standards used in industry should not be carried over into church life. Baptists must operate on different – and higher – standards.

Churches across the state need badly to learn that the very basis of their faith is a type of love that seeks to give rather than to get. Because of the self-giving love of Christ, men are saved. By this same type of self-giving love men should seek to serve. To do the best one can for Christ means to learn how to give with little thought of receiving anything in return. The plague of this day and the curse of contemporary Christianity is that the attitudes of too many revolve around the question: What’s in it for me? This is a very selfish and un-Christian attitude and Baptists must seek continually to keep this question from being behind their motives for Christian service – whether in the association or even in the local church. By conquering this egocentric attitude and seeking to be guided by this other question – What can I give? – the exhortations of the above Scriptural passages can be implemented in a much better way.

Through the meetings of the association, each church has the opportunity to help bear the burden of each of the other churches. True, each church should seek to bear its own load, but all the sister churches should help bear the overload. The meaning of Galatians 6:2 cannot be carried out if the values of associational meetings are judged solely on the basis of what is received. If the interest is in giving and helping others, then there will be little difficulty in having this desire satisfied.

Likewise, through the meetings of the association, those who are members of strong churches have the opportunity to do as Romans 15:1 says. By their help and suggestions they can bear the infirmities of the weak. Those from the larger churches may very well attend an associational meeting and not get a thing. But if they go with the love question: What can I give? in their minds, they will be able to strengthen those who are weaker than themselves. Rather than being a waste of time, this would be a very profitable meeting – for the ones strengthened. And those who help would have their reward also.

Finally, through the meetings of the association, those who go with the question, What can I give? foremost in their minds will find that they will be contributing to the needs of the saints of the smaller churches. This verse refers to financial contributions in its original context, but it most certainly could include also the contribution of encouragement and concern and help to others.

Oh, may God help the Baptists in the many associations of Kentucky to be more interested in giving than in receiving, in loving than in being loved, in helping than in being helped! May God help them join together for cooperative enterprises – with this motto, perhaps, as their guide:

I will give my association;
My praise before my criticism;
My time before my money;
My money before my advice;
And my advice before the year is up.

VI. Team Leaders Reports

1. Brotherhood Report

Baptist Men of North Carolina are the most active of any Faith Based group in the United States when it comes to Disaster Relief. We were there at Ground Zero on 9/11 and we are still there in the aftermath of Katrina. Baptist Men can also help strengthen your church as men come together to draw strength from each other. Just as Iron sharpens Iron, men can uniquely motivate other men to be better fathers, husbands, and leaders in their churches. Baptist Men should be more than a “meet to eat” fellowship, it should and can be an important part of the Intentionally Evangelistic Church.

The Baptist Men of Sandhills Baptist Association had one Associational level meeting last year. We had a fun day for men and boys at First Baptist Church Vass. If your church does not have a Baptist Men’s Organization and is interested in starting one, please contact me at one of the following: Email: williamed46@earthlink.net, Office: 910-245-4394, Home: 910-245-9945, Cell: 910-658-9018.

2. Discipleship Training Report

If I could offer one word of encouragement within this report, it is: utilize your Association's Discipleship Training Library. In the past year, several new training resources (donated and purchased) have been added and will enhance any church's ministries. They include:

- 1) Deacons – Growing in Character and Commitment (Jim Henry)
- 2) Deacons – Partners in Ministry and Growth (Jim Henry)
- 3) Living Beyond Yourself – Exploring The Fruit of the Spirit (Beth Moore)
- 4) The Prayer of Jesus – Living the Lord's Prayer (Ken Hemphill)

Your Association's Discipleship Training Library includes materials in the areas of Administration, Deacon, Evangelism, Spiritual Gifts, Spiritual Development, Sunday School, and Youth. You may find the complete list of these resources on the Association's website at www.sandhillsbaptist.org.

As always, thank you for your financial contribution to your Association. Your faithfulness will ensure our Discipleship Training Library will include the best training resources possible.

3. Evangelism Report

We rejoice in the Lord in all that we are seeing Him do in and through the churches of our association. In Mark 6 we read how Jesus sent His disciples out on a mission and in verse 30 of that chapter it says that the disciples returned to Jesus and began to tell Him all they had done and taught. I can imagine that must have been an exciting time as they shared testimonies of the things they had just experienced. As we gather together for our annual meeting this year, these are also exciting times for our Sandhills Baptist Association. We have seen and experienced our Lord Jesus doing so many great things in our churches this year and we praise the Lord for all the efforts that have been made by our churches in the area of evangelism and prayer. We've seen our Lord work and save lost souls in a variety of different services and outreaches this past year, through the ministry of our churches. I wish we had time to allow each church to share the amazing things our Lord has done and is doing in their church. Remember our Lord Jesus sent the disciples out in pairs in Mark 6, and when each pair came back the Lord had worked through their efforts. I can imagine that all six groups had a different story to share. They had been to different towns, with different people and had encountered different circumstances, but the key is they had a story to tell.

Just as Jesus sent the 12, I believe He is also sending us. We may be ministering in different towns to different people and facing different circumstances, but the same is true for all of us: Jesus is sending us on a mission and there are a lot of folks who still need Him. So let's continue to pray for one another that our Lord will continue to do great things in our churches, and let us remember that we are not in competition with one another. Let us minister in cooperation, that we may win the area of the Sandhills Baptist Association to Jesus.

Praise the Lord for all He has done this year and let us praise Him for all He is going to do in the upcoming year.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Gregg Newton
Evangelism Team Leader

4. Library Media Report

The library at the Association Office is an untapped resource for our churches, many of which do not have libraries of their own. The materials can be used by individuals or groups to help with Bible studies, missions work and personal Christian growth. Many thanks to churches and individuals who have donated materials and resources.

If anyone has materials they would like to share with others in our association feel free to contact the Director of Missions or myself.

5. Missions Report

On behalf of the Missions Mega-Team, I can honestly report that our 2006-07 fiscal year has certainly been one of kingdom productivity. As stated in the latter part of our Associational purpose statement, our churches have certainly been '...Multiplying Kingdom Servants'. Join me in rejoicing over the following reports and church testimonials.

Well, what do you think, Sandhills Baptists? Do you agree with me that God is certainly working in our midst? As excited as I am about what God has done in our Association, I am so much more excited about what He is going to do in 08'.

To God be ALL the glory!

Respectively submitted,
Scott Yow
Missions Team Leader

6. Music Report

In the book of Isaiah 30:18 the scripture says, "The Lord must wait for you to come to him so He can show you His love and compassion. For the Lord is a faithful God. Blessed are those who wait for His help." (NLT) As the weeks led up to the 14th annual ChoirSing, it seemed as though Satan was going to throw every obstacle he could think of to stop the blessing of ChoirSing. But through persistence, advice, support, and most importantly the many, many prayers from member churches in the association, the Lord was faithful to His word and the 14th annual ChoirSing was a tremendous success! Pinecrest High School again allowed us to use Robert E. Lee auditorium to present ChoirSing to the public. And once again, approximately 700 people were in attendance. We had five new member church choirs participate for the first time or the first time in a long time this year, which we give God the glory for! Most in attendance said that they were not only blessed by the music, but by the message in the music. And that's what we should be all about: spreading the message of God's love and salvation through music. I would challenge those involved in the music departments of our member churches in our Association to treat music as a ministry, not as a means to entertain. Let's not forget, we all have been commissioned to bring others to a saving knowledge of Christ. Music is a vital ministry tool through which we may have that opportunity.

Many thanks to all who do serve in the music ministry of our member churches for your willingness to serve and for utilizing the talents God has blessed you with. Be in prayer as we seek God's will as to how He will direct the music department of the SBA to proclaim His message to all in the upcoming year.

Respectfully submitted,
Bryan Foster
Music Team Leader

7. Pastoral Ministries Report

Efforts to support the work of the pastors of our association have been focusing upon both their spiritual needs and competency improvement. A monthly prayer group for pastors continues to meet on the second Thursday of each month at FBC Aberdeen. Book reviews related to texts dealing with personal and corporate spiritual development are posted regularly on the associational web site. Cluster groups of pastors, focusing both upon special interests and geographical location, continue to meet on a regular basis.

Near the end of September deacons and their pastors came together for a study of how deacons can assist in handling church family crises. As our times seem to grow more and more turbulent both outside and inside the church, our pastors need all the help they can get. This study was led by Tony Capehart, a former pastor in our area and cofounder of GraceWorks, a family counseling service.

For our bivocational ministers a set of support books has been developed and is being distributed. A special page on the associational web site is also being maintained to offer additional resources. Along with these efforts a monthly email is being produced to provide other tools for the bivocational minister.

Tom Lamkin

8. Senior Adult Report

On May 7 almost 200 senior adults from our Sandhills Baptist Association churches met at Teen Challenge on Farm Life Road for a catered dinner and a program provided by the residents of Teen Challenge. After the meal the young men of the Bible based drug rehabilitation program gave their testimonies and sang several songs. Sal and Debbie DeBianca provide critical leadership for this miracle-working ministry in our area.

The churches of our association are encouraged to explore all the ways the senior adults in our congregations can become ever more effective Kingdom servants. The secular world may recognize a time for retirement. The Kingdom of God does not. Jobs may change, but the responsibility to remain an active and vital part of the Body of Christ never disappears. Prayer support and mentoring relationships are always needed. Out in the secular world our communities need to see mature individuals who continue to be faithful witnesses to the saving power of Jesus Christ.

Senior adults can still lead the way in faithful Christian living. Have your church select a senior adult ministries coordinator if one does not already exist. Make sure your Sunday School is providing classes for seniors if there are sufficient numbers of prospects and members. Seek opportunities to hold weekday Bible studies, discipleship training classes, and prayer groups for seniors who are unable to be out at night. Discover where seniors are already active and bring a Christian witness into their presence.

Respectfully submitted,
Tom Lamkin

9. Sunday School Report

Sunday School training was a great success! Brother Tom Lamkin led this training and it was very informative for the Sunday School teachers to take back to the classrooms. In the feedback that I have received everyone including me received a blessing. I know that everyone is looking forward to our upcoming year with great enthusiasm! Thank God for spirit-filled teachers and our Sandhills Baptist Association. The drought this summer has had everyone down, but what a blessing that God offers living water and our churches preach it.

11. Youth Report

The Youth Ministry Team met on several occasions through the year and discussed trends in youth ministry. Several churches sent representatives to the meetings and there was good participation by those in attendance. We began developing an ideas notebook where youth leaders would bring in copies of ideas that had worked well with their group and share them with leaders from other churches. Each meeting included a time of sharing prayer concerns and a time of fellowship and refreshments.

6. Property and Grounds Report

During the month of December 2006 the Moore County Fire Marshall inspected the Sandhills Baptist Association office and issued a citation for not having Exit signs. Two illuminated Exit signs and two smoke alarms were purchased and installed.

Termites were again detected in the south end of the building. An exterminator treated the affected area and we are investigating a yearly contract for termites.

Some much needed inside repairs have been corrected by the Building and Grounds committee.

The grounds have been maintained by the following churches, March - Carthage; April - Robbins; May - Ephesus; June - Red Branch; July - Emmanuel; August - Lemon Springs; Sept. - Aberdeen; Oct. - Cameron. We wish to thank each church and individual for the excellent work they have performed in keeping our grounds looking so well.

Respectfully submitted,
Harold Cameron, Chairman

7. Seminary Extension Report

Today more people have computers in their homes than ever before. We, as Christians, need to take advantage of personal computers to further our education. Whether it's surfing Christian websites for classes and programs, or downloading a biblical software program, the computer offers a variety of information and ease. With this in mind, our Association has made so much available to us through our website at www.sandhillsbaptist.org. There you will find access under "Continuing Education/Education Resources" to excellent education opportunities. Some of these websites even contain Bibles and books in other languages for members of our church for whom English is not their first language.

There is so much information that is available to us that is free and easily accessible from home, including the Seminary Extension website at www.seminaryextension.org. Also added new this year is a link to Lifeway Lessons' new online teaching resource at www.lifewaylessons.com.

How much easier can it be to further your knowledge and education? The Association will continue to search for wonderful websites, software and literature for you to have and enjoy. You just have to use it!

Respectfully submitted,
Roger Thomas, Director

8. Credentials Committee Report

The Credentials Committee of Sandhills Baptist Association met several times during the past year to consider the request of Harmony Baptist Church to be admitted as a member of the Association.

The Credentials Committee met with their pastor, Bob Morrison, exchanged information with the leadership of the church, and met with the membership of Harmony Baptist Church in their sanctuary. Questions were raised about the polity, theological views, economic strength, willingness to be a contributing member of the Association, method of accepting members and other related concerns.

All questions and concerns of the Committee having been answered and addressed and with much prayerful consideration, it was the recommendation of the Credentials Committee of Sandhills Baptist Association that Harmony Baptist Church be taken under Watch Care of the Association for a period of one year and thereafter to be considered for full membership in the Association. This recommendation was duly reported to the Executive Board of SBA and acted upon positively in their regular session.

Respectfully submitted,
Bill Davis, Chairman

VIII. Historical Events in the Churches

ABERDEEN: Our fall revival was held Oct. 1-4, 2006, led by Mike Penry of Garner, NC. The church family had pictures made for a new Pictorial Directory in October. We began a Military Support Ministry in October, where military wives meet for Bible study and fellowship on Thursday mornings and Mothers' Morning Out on Fridays. In November we had a International Mission Study, led by Zeb and Evelyn Moss, retired missionaries to South Africa. A groundbreaking ceremony was held on March 25, 2007 for construction of a new educational facility. The India Children's Choir led us in worship in April. Crissy Wase, a college student, went to East Asia with Campus Crusade for Christ in May. Our Minister of Music, Macky Kyle, and his wife D'Etta went on a Chang Mai Music Mission trip to Thailand in June, where they taught children to play the piano and witnessed to them. The educational building construction began in July with demolition of the parking lot behind the church. We have a MANNA project which is held every Tuesday night, and we began participating in the Adopt-A-Highway program in June. Discipleship Training courses offered this year were "Using Your Money Wisely" by Larry Burkett, "Daniel" by Beth Moore, "Believing God" by Beth Moore, and "Experiencing the Cross" by Henry Blackaby. (Gail Garner, historian)

ASHLEY HEIGHTS: On July 1, 2007 Ashley Heights Baptist Church called Rev. Kevin Huff as our pastor. We are excited to welcome Rev. Huff and his wife Tina to our church. Since arriving, Rev. Huff has started several new classes. Seventy members signed up to take part in "A Journey in Faith" class on Tuesday nights for thirteen weeks. The class will train members in evangelism that will begin on Tuesday nights when the class is complete. On Wednesday nights members are taking part in one of the following three classes. Beth Moore, "A Heart Like His", "The Measure Of A Man", and a class on the "First Five Books of the Bible." God is blessing Ashley Heights weekly with visitors and new members. It is our prayer that in the near future we will need to remove two walls in our sanctuary to allow more space in our morning worship service.

BEAVER CREEK: Hunter Gelling was dedicated by his parents, Mark and Lynn. Wilson Mullins was dedicated by his father, Steven Mullins. Lifeline Recovery, a recovery from addiction ministry, was started. We began building a new sanctuary.

BETHLEHEM: The new church year began by implementing Missions Night on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month. Missions Friends and Acteens were added to the existing RA and GA organizations. Our church was presented a certificate at the Sandhills Baptist Association annual meeting for "Top Percentage Giver in the Association for 2005 for Christian Missions through the Cooperative Program." Senior Adult Sunday was held Oct. 29, recognizing our "golden treasures" with a special service and dinner. A defibrillator system was purchased and 15 members were trained by the Red Cross to use it. Our Baptist Men had a busy year with projects such as building ramps, porch rails, home repairs and doing yard work for elderly people. The men sponsored our second annual Family Day with softball, hayrides, games, hot dogs, hamburgers and homemade ice cream. Baptist Men's Day speaker was Greg Barnes, reporter with WTVD in Durham. The WMU gave 37 study Bibles to the Cameron Boys' Camp, participated in Christmas in August, Operation Christmas Child and many other projects. Speaker for WMU Focus Sunday was Phyllis Elvington, nationally known speaker and board member of the North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc. (Kay Robbins, clerk)

BEULAH HILL: The church has started a building program this year and continues to sponsor a church in Rock Hill, West Virginia.

CALVARY: As the new church year began October 1 our primary goal was two-fold: unity and growth. Through Sunday School, Wednesday night Bible study and prayer meeting, as well as off campus classes aimed specifically toward teens, college students and young marrieds, we began to see and feel these things. Every member was encouraged to identify and use their spiritual gifts. Adult men and women's classes were combined. Two Sunday School rooms were completely renovated. The Adult II class moved into the former men's class. Each class planned and executed at least one ministry program and one fellowship day each quarter. Land below our fellowship hall was cleared of diseased and dangerous trees. A cleanup of the resulting debris provided even more time of ministry and fellowship. Pastor Brad Harrison is doing a fantastic job of getting people involved in ministry and we are looking forward to even greater spiritual growth and fellowship. (Janet Brewer, Clerk)

CAMERON: This year we had many opportunities to serve God and reach out and minister to others. In November 2006, a Fall Festival was held and the money raised exceeded $2000.00. These funds were given to 'Give Children A Chance', an organization started by Jarrod Gozy. He is one of our members who is on active duty in the Army. In December, we hosted a Christmas Party for over 30 children and family members from our local community. Gifts, groceries and hats, scarves, and gloves were presented to each guest. In January, we began the year with the theme "2007: Year of Restoration". We are striving to restore, refresh and renew our commitments to God, Family, Church, and Community. During this past year, our M&Ms (Music & Missions Kids) raised funds with a lemonade stand and donated the proceeds to two churches for their building program. Cameron Baptist was presented a Certificate of Appreciation by Director Michele Sims from 'Children In The Son', a children's ministry in Romania. We had a very successful Vacation Bible School with 122 in attendance—seven children accepted Christ! On August 18th, Cameron participated in an 'Operation Inasmuch' project in the Carolina Lakes Subdivision with Emmanuel, Beaver Creek, and Red Branch Baptist Churches. Our Legacy Builders built a school bus stop shelter and presented it to that area as a gift to the children. On September 9th, the children and youth took over Sunday School and Worship, teaching Sunday School classes and leading the Worship Service. Afterwards, the youth dedicated a bench at our basketball court in memory of Luke Marsh, a member of their youth group, who passed away in June. They also presented his parents with a "memory book". We have been blessed with ten baptisms this year. (Jane Rogers, Historian)

CARTHAGE: In March our church established a love offering for infant Emilie Sadler, who has spent months at Duke suffering from many physical problems. We hosted the community Lenten services. Our revival was held Sept. 9-12, with Rev. Curtis Barbery, pastor of Beulah Hill, leading the services. VBS was held June 25-29 for children ages 3 through 6th grade. Several discipleship training opportunities were offered, including "The DaVinci Deception," "Galilee, the Land Where Jesus Walked," "How to Make Sense Out of Suffering," "Three Things You Cannot Learn in School," "Run Like a Champion," "Taking the Mystery Out of Knowing God's Will," and "Searching for Heaven on Earth." High Attendance Sunday was held in September, a service which honored all Sunday School teachers, past and present, followed by a covered dish lunch. Baptist Men had many outreach projects, including collecting Campbell soul labels to help another church obtain a van, collection of empty printer cartridges for Baptist Children's Homes, and a food roundup for Cameron Boys Camp. In January the Baptist Men led the worship service and in September they hosted a Pig Pickin' for Cameron Boys Camp. Three young men attended Caraway Summer Camp. Baptist Men hold a prayer breakfast once a month. WMU projects included providing food for a Thanksgiving meal at the Friend to Friend facility. In December they entertained ladies from Tara Plantation nursing facility, including a Christmas meal and gift exchange. Items were collected for the local elementary school. The Hopeful Hearts Sunday School class made a donation to "Back Pack Pals," a project that provides food for underprivileged students over the weekends. During the Fourth of July parade our Baptist Men and WMU provided free hot dogs, drinks, church brochures, Christian tracts, and other favors to hundreds of people in the community. In September Baptist Men and Women traveled to the Odum Home in Pembroke to help with overall maintenance of the premises, and in November provided 75 Operation Christmas Child shoe boxes for Samaritan's Purse. The Adult Activities Committee sponsored several trips, including theatrical productions, luncheons, and the Associational Senior Adult Banquet.

CORNERSTONE: Our church manned a booth at the Foxfire Festival in Foxfire in the Spring. We distributed information about our church and entertained the children with face painting and crafts.

EAGLE SPRINGS: Eagle Springs Baptist Church continues to be a mission minded church. The WMU involved the church in our 40 mission projects, locally, nationally and abroad. Special emphasis was given to our Lottie Moon Christmas offering, Annie Armstrong Easter Offering, Baptist Retirement Homes, Baptist Hospitals, Samaritan Purse, Red Box Ministry for female inmates. Thanksgiving baskets for local shut-ins and on hands missions in the Country and Community. A Senior Banquet, honoring the Senior Citizens of the church, was held in May. Dr. Tony Cartledge, former Editor of the Biblical Recorder was guest speaker. A successful VBS was held during the summer. A large group of our Church members attended the Associational Senior Banquet. Founders Day at Cameron Boys Home and Friends Of Children at Baptist Children's Home with a Prayer walk were also highlights of this years activities. (Irene Thomas)

EMMANUEL: Emmanuel has helped support three foreign missionaries this year: Ishmael Wansaba in Kenya, Hope Givers International in India, and Fidel Barndale in Honduras. Locally, we participated in Back Pack Pals, collected food throughout the school year, provided school supplies for kids in the Carolina Lakes community, sent care packages to soldiers in Iraq and a group of ladies went to St. Louis to participate in the Dream Center mission training. Our Carpenters for Christ team continues to assist needs in the community as they arise. The church continues to grow physically and spiritually. (Susan Cook, Church Clerk)

EPHESUS: Ephesus began its 121st year with Rev. David Thomas being called as Pastor, after having served for several months as Interim. A reception was held to welcome him. The first Sunday in October was Homecoming, with Rev. Fulton Thomas, former pastor, as speaker. Bernice Briggs gave the history and Wayne Allen, former member, presented a plaque to honor Neil Tyson, who gave the land for the church in 1886. Mr. Tyson was a charter member and great grandfather of Wayne. Several times a year the church sends cookies to the troops overseas and Christmas cards are mailed to our military. A special Veteran's Day service was observed. Phillip Comer, youth minister, and Kerri McNeill were married in December and continue to lead the youth. WMU hosted the annual Associational Prayer Retreat in February, with Mrs. Bea McRae as speaker. Evangelism Explosion was taught by the pastor for 14 weeks. We held a successful VBS, directed by Mary Yow. 23 children gave their heart to Christ. Pat Banks, church secretary, was honored with flowers in the church in appreciation for 19 years of service. Don and Janet Pittman left Ephesus in the late 1980's to become vocational missionaries to Africa. They are now in the Far East and Ephesus sends 5% of undesignated gifts to support them. They presented a program about their work this year when they were home on furlough. We observed a Hebrew Passover meal with Grace Chapel during Easter. We hosted the Community Sunrise Service, followed by breakfast. Dr. Curtis Barbary spoke at our spring revival, held in May. The church purchased a second van and a carport. (Bernice Briggs, Historian)

FAIRVIEW: The church called Rev. Larry Wells to be assistant pastor.

FAITH: The church started a Ladies Bible Study Group that meets once a month.

HARMONY: Harmony Baptist Church is a new Southern Baptist church in West End. Our doors were opened in March 2007 with a mission of leading souls to Christ. As a new church we installed Pastor Bob Morrison, who comes with years of experience. He was previously the interim pastor of Red Branch Baptist Church for three years and pastor of Ephesus Baptist Church in Sanford for 20 years. Brother Bob retired as Pastor Emeritus from Ephesus. Since becoming a Southern Baptist church we obtained a partnership with Red Branch Baptist Church in Carthage, united with the NC State Baptist Convention and were accepted under the watch care of the Sandhills Baptist Association. We are proud to announce that our attendance has doubled in just six months.

HOPE COMMUNITY: HCBC celebrated its 3rd anniversary in January 2006, as well as our Pastor celebrated his 3rd year pastoring the Church at the same time. HCBC also went into its 3rd year of the prison correspondence ministry which serves inmates, men and women, at the county, state and federal levels with providing them Bibles, and Christian literature. The Church continues to be located in the original start-up site at 202 Camp Easter Rd. in Lakeview. The growth that the Church has experienced since its start-up has created a stable Church body. The Church continues to serve the community in holiday outreaches as well as to meet needs on an as needed basis for people in the community as well as people in the surrounding communities.

IVES MEMORIAL: Highlights of our year include a wonderful Spiritual Refreshment Weekend, as well as the dedication of our new paved parking lot. Successful outreaches included a mission trip to West Virginia, working at Samaritan's Purse warehouse, Fall Festival, and our annual "Free-for-All." Many were reached for the Lord, and those who participated were also blessed. (Betty Hardy, Church Clerk)

A new website has been set up to increase outreach in our church and community and keep us informed of events in the church. We also paved the parking area at the multi-purpose building. In December 2006, Pleasant Hill Baptist Church sponsored C.R.O.S.S. Two new Women on Mission groups were started in August, and several children and leaders attended the Children's Missions Rally in September. Dr. Moss is leading the church in "Your Church Experiencing God Together" by Henry Blackaby and Melvin D. Blackaby. The church recently called Steve Cox as Associate Pastor.

VASS: Rev. Bill Davis, his family and Robbie Martin have made several visits to Bolivia to share the word of God. Many of these people are receiving this message for the very first time. What an enlightening experience this must be for everyone. In sharing God's love, they have worked with the people sharing knowledge about ways to increase their herds of livestock. The Bolivians in the very rural areas still clear land by hand for their crops. Our people are working hard to share with them how the practice of "crop rotation" can increase productivity. With this increase, our church deemed it necessary to purchase a truck for the people to haul their own goods to market in order for them to have an increased profit for individual families. Kelly Davis, (Rev. & Mrs. Davis' daughter), is presently in Bolivia having recently graduating from Campbell University, teaching English and assisting the people in her ancestral village. WMU, Baptist Men and our Youth carry on other local missions. Barbara Koonce, our Missions Director, attended the "Missions Extravaganza" at Ridgecrest. WMU had sponsored Operation Christmas, Friend-to-Friend Soap offering for Prisoners and a Spring "Free" Yard Sale for our community. The Baptist Men have assisted the Cameron Boy's Home with cutting trees to clear various areas. They've have also aided various seniors and other members of church who needed help clearing debris and/or other tasks requested in their yards. In the spring, our Baptist Men prepared breakfast for those attending our Sunrise Service. The Youth coordinators sponsored a Trunk or Treat Festival and supper, a Talent Show, and a Valentine's Dinner for our senior citizens and shut-ins. These young people have had two lock-ins to fast, fellowship and share God's teachings. At the beginning of summer they enjoyed a beach trip to share in activities and learning more about God's creation. In September, to culminate the year, the youth attended a Wake Forest vs. Maryland football game in Winston Salem. Over the past year, our church has updated its décor in the sanctuary with new paint, beautiful carpeting, matching upholstery for the pulpit furniture and pew cushions. At the beginning of the summer 2007, we installed white plantation shutters in the sanctuary and white plantation blinds in the kitchen area of our fellowship hall. With all of the improvements with our church, our church family and missions it is hard to keep up. Other venues of activity included Rev. Bruce Benton, a former pastor, led our 2006 Homecoming Service. Also of note was Mr. James Monroe being ordained as deacon in January 2007. Several of our senior citizens attended a dinner in their honor at Teen Challenge. Another important development for the future of our church family would be that our Children's Church has become a very beneficial part of our Sunday morning services. We also ventured out and implemented an ESL (English as a Second Language) Program for the Hispanics of our area led by the Davis family and church volunteers.

VICTORY: We completed our basement project and had a dedication service in February. The basement is our Sunday School facility. The WMU, coordinated by Kay Simpson, is making squares for a quilt to be displayed at our 25th anniversary in August, 2008. Each person attending our church will be represented on a square. We started work on a new directory with Olin Mills to be completed by our 25th anniversary. In January 2008 we will begin putting articles in a time capsule to be buried on our 25th anniversary.

WEST END: During the past year we have been blessed by God with growth in attendance and giving. We have experienced a tremendous amount of growth in our children's programs and started a van ministry for our Wednesday evening children's programs. We have started a Mission Friends group on Wednesday evenings. We exceeded our missions offering goals in every category. We have become a host site for the Faith Bible Institute, a video based Bible Institute with a certificate program that teaches through the Bible in three years. We currently have twelve people enrolled in FBI at our site.

If satisfactory reason is not given and there is not effort to keep alive their association with the cooperating churches, the Credentials Committee shall bring its findings to the association. The Sandhills Baptist Association Annual Session met for the second day session on October 17, 2006 beginning at 5:45 p.m. with a time of food and fellowship at Robbins First Baptist Church. A time of inspirational music was provided by Stacy Branch and Greg Pilson at 6:40 p.m. The meeting was called to order at 7:00 p.m. with 78 messengers and 35 visitors present. Host pastor Rev. Kenneth McNeill welcomed the group. Roy Harvel of Pinehurst First Baptist Church, moderator, called the meeting to order and introduced Dr. Curtis Barbery of Beulah Hill for the devotion, taken from II Corinthians 6:1. Congregational singing was led by Greg Pilson.

Rev. Tom Lamkin recognized special guest, Don McCutcheon, Executive Team Leader for Missions Growth and Evangelism from the Baptist State Convention. Awards from the Baptist State Convention were presented to the following churches: 1) Lemon Springs for the most contribution from our association on a per capita basis to the Lottie Moon Christmas offering; 2) Aberdeen First Baptist for the most dollars given to the Lottie Moon Christmas offering by one church from our association; and 3) Bethlehem for the highest percentage of giving of undesignated gifts to the Cooperative Program from our association.

Four children from Aberdeen First Baptist gave a demonstration of Children's Bible Drill, with an explanation by Linda Branscome of Aberdeen.

Rev. Charles Hinson led in prayer for Dr. Wayne and Elaine Adams.

Dr. Zeb Moss exhibited a "Story in Cloth" which is available to churches who contribute to the Lottie Moon Christmas offering.

Abigail Davis, recipient of a Sandhills Baptist Association missions scholarship, presented slides and gave a short talk on her recent missions trip to Bolivia.

Dr. Wayne Greene told about Operation Inasmuch, a recent missions endeavor by Cameron, Emmanuel and Beaver Creek Baptist churches in the Carolina Lakes subdivision of Cameron.

Dr. Jim Whitehead installed the new slate of officers for 2006-2007, and a prayer of dedication was offered by Rev. Tom Lamkin.

Special music was presented by Greg Pilson and the Robbins First Baptist Choir, after which Don McCutcheon of the Baptist State Convention brought the evening message from Acts 1:8 entitled "Be Strong in the Lord."

Roy Harvel gave the benediction and adjourned the meeting. This concluded the annual meeting of the Sandhills Baptist Association for 2006.

Audit: The financial records for 2005-2006 were audited and found to be in good order on November 30, 2006 by John Beith.

2. Clerk's Report

The Association Board, (composed of association officers, 3 lay persons from each church, pastors/staff, committee chairpersons), met two times during the past year: February 20 and June 19. Approximately 40 representatives from the churches received informative reports and transacted important business of the association. New Freedom Baptist Mission and the Hispanic Mission at Robbins First Baptist disbanded during the past year. The congregation summary report for the 32 churches in the association is printed at the end of the book of reports.

Respectfully Submitted,
Patty Lunday, Clerk

3. Director of Missions Report

This report will include:

A Children's Bible Drill Demonstration under the direction of Tim McCluskey of FBC Aberdeen and an oral report from our 2006 Missions Scholarship recipient, Abigail Davis of FBC Vass.

Something Old and Something New

Mat 13:52 So he told them, "Every student of the Scriptures who becomes a disciple in the kingdom of heaven is like someone who brings out new and old treasures from the storeroom."

Bible Drill has been around for a while. Our support of a short-term missions volunteer through associational funds is new. Like the individual spoken of in our text, we must decide out of all that God has placed in our hands what it is to which we must devote our time and resources.

When I came here over four years ago, I spoke of strengthening evangelistic impact, enhancing our discipleship training, and broadening our missions diversity. What you have seen and heard as a part of the Annual Meeting report is a part of those emphases.

We have also seen an expansion in our out-of-the-area missions involvement through a variety of mission team efforts. We have seen more churches leading their people to begin prayer walking their local church field. Baptisms have increased in several churches and new discipleship training courses have been offered on Sunday and Wednesday evenings.

In this last year we have had to say farewell to the congregations of the Robbins Hispanic Mission and that of New Freedom Baptist Church as they dissolved after several years of effort. They may not exist today, but each served in many ways to produce life-changing transformation in several people. We can thank God for the way He was able to work through them, and can pray that we will have additional opportunities for missions in these areas.

Though the number of churches and missions in our association is smaller now than a year ago, we have seen God open new areas as ministry points that seemed closed before. Through prayer and addressing targeted needs, we are beginning relational evangelism efforts where they had not previously existed in areas such as Carolina Lakes and Woodlake. The Hispanic work in Aberdeen has shown tremendous success in this first year of its existence, reaching individuals and families and baptizing new converts.

Yet there is so much more we can do as an association if we simply decide that these are the Kingdom-focused activities in which God wants us to invest both ourselves and the resources he has placed at our disposal.

Briefly consider these doors that may be opening for us as we seek the leadership of the Holy Spirit:

1. Prayer ministries that can be started in at least nine different communities throughout our association consisting of prayer walking, regular home prayer gatherings, and soliciting residents for prayer concerns
2. English as Second Language classes that are needed in at least five communities involving not only Hispanics but also a growing number of Asian immigrants as well
3. A resident part-time Christian counselor co-sponsored with CareNet, a community based counseling ministry supported by our North Carolina Baptist Hospital
4. Home Bible studies started with the intent of drawing people to our current churches or giving birth to new mission plants in our association
5. Partnership with another association in our state or outside of North Carolina with whom we could share resources especially in the area of mission teams focusing upon leadership

- training, evangelism, and facility renovation
6. Innovative ministries focused upon our rapidly expanding medical community
7. Innovative ministries focused upon our golfing community
8. Innovative ministries focused upon our equestrian community
9. Expansion of our Moore County Fair ministry and our presence at all community festivals
10. Offer more specialized training focusing on church health and growth through local church, association-wide, and web site-based channels

What is possible will not depend upon God's willingness to be at work through us. We know He is already working in our midst. The limitations will be imposed by our willingness to face the future and move into the future. We must decide if we are willing to pay the price, yes in finances as our increased budget indicates, but much more so in time, in commitment, in our focus upon the Kingdom of God, and in the way we live seeking to be found faithful to God's great calling.

It really is all about what the Sandhills Baptist Association can do for you as you, the individual churches of this Association, decide to live as the body of Christ in service to the Kingdom of God as Christ Himself did, willing even to die for the cause of the Kingdom if necessary.

Respectfully submitted,
Tom Lamkin
Director of Missions

VI. Team Leaders Reports

1. Brotherhood Report

Baptist Men have had a very busy year. We have had a number of churches start Baptist Men programs and others have expanded their existing programs. More are becoming involved in things such as Disaster Relief, Handy-man support, food and tape ministries, as well as outreach programs. There is a place for everyone who will step up and be a part of God's work. I am so thankful for the number of men that are becoming involved. It is such a blessing to know that in a time of need, be it a hurricane, a flood or some other disaster that Baptist Men are the first to arrive on the scene and the last to leave. There is so much to be done and there is a job for everyone in Baptist Men activities. It has been such a blessing to be a team leader for these last two years as Brotherhood Director and to work with so many of God's people. You have my support and I will work as I am needed any time. As our new Brotherhood Director comes on board, let us support him and continue to grow in God's grace.

Respectfully submitted,
Woodrow Thomas
Brotherhood Team Leader

2. Discipleship Training Report

With our population growing in the Sandhills region, there remains a critical need for strong discipleship training in all our churches. Several of our churches do have regular classes at various times throughout the year including my own, Red Branch Baptist Church. Additional materials will be added to the holdings in the Resource Center in the new associational year and be ready for use by our churches in the coming months. Due to health reasons I have not been available to help as I had hoped in this last year. As conditions allow I will still answer questions as needs arise and assist the new Discipleship Team Leader whenever possible.

Respectfully submitted,
Percy Flowers
Discipleship Team Leader

3. Evangelism Report

What an exciting time this is to be a part of the Sandhills Baptist Association. Our Lord is truly doing some awesome and great things in all of our churches. We thank the Lord for all the many different evangelistic efforts that have been made by our churches in the past year. We have had many different ways that we have reached out to our communities and we thank the Lord for each and every one who has taken the time to lift up the name of Jesus. This past year we have seen many seeds of the gospel sown, many seeds watered and praise the Lord we have seen many of those seeds harvested into the kingdom of God.

As you know, prayer and evangelism go hand in hand. This past year we held a prayer conference at Aberdeen First Baptist with Rev. Chris Schofield (our Prayer/Evangelism Leader from the Baptist State Convention). We had a great time and we appreciate all who attended. Brother Chris will be with us again next year on February 2-3 at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church. Make plans now to join us for a great time in the Lord.

Again we praise the Lord for all the souls led to Christ this past year through evangelistic efforts of all our churches, and we praise the Lord for all the souls that will come to know Him in this upcoming year. Keep up the good work and keep lifting up the name of Jesus.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Gregg Newton
Evangelism Team Leader

4. Library Media Report

The library at the Association Office is an untapped resource for our churches, many of which do not have libraries of their own. The materials can be used by individuals or groups to help with Bible studies, missions work and personal Christian growth. Many thanks to churches and individuals who have donated materials and resources.

If anyone has materials they would like to share with others in our association feel free to contact the Director of Missions or myself.

Respectfully submitted,
Gail Riley
Library Team Leader

5. Missions Report

Sandhills Baptists, God has accomplished some wonderful things in this past year for which we all should be grateful. Since we last gathered for our Annual Meeting in 05', we have seen near record baptisms and a missionary spirit within our churches that is continuing to kindle even to this very day. A perfect example of this missionary spirit was exhibited recently (September) through the efforts of some of our Northeast churches while performing an 'Operation Inasmuch' project in the Carolina Lakes subdivision located just west of Cameron. As a part of the project, our churches "put action" into our evangelistic efforts by scraping their dirt roads, picking up trash, face paintings for the kids, Backyard Bible clubs and providing everyone in the community with a warm lunch and a presentation of the gospel. When all was said and done, we witnessed many lives touched and changed through the compassion of our Sandhills Baptists. The Carolina Lakes project is the first of many more similar outreach missions the Mission Mega Team is going to be sponsoring throughout our Association in this next fiscal year. So, in other words, be ready to work and witness whenever the Missions Mega Team contacts your area churches for the next Associational Outreach Project in your area.

To God Be All The Glory!

Respectively submitted,
Scott Yow
Missions Team Leader

6. Music Report

The 13th Annual ChoirSing was a great success, with 10 church choirs in participation and approximately 700 in attendance. We chose to use the Pinecrest High School Auditorium due to the past successes of the choir festivals and the growing numbers in attendance each year. In doing so we were hoping to broaden the outreach to the general public and also provide a venue for the local churches to supply information about themselves if they wished to do so. It was a bold step forward from the traditional confines of church sanctuaries and a leap of faith that resulted in a very inspirational evening of worship. As Music Team Leader, I challenge the music departments of the churches in our Association to never be satisfied with the status quo, to strive to reach out in faith and try new and fresh types of music that could possibly have a broader impact on the unchurched.

Let us all thank the Directors, Musicians and Choir Members of our respective churches for their willingness to serve and use their God given talents. It is truly a ministry that God uses to reach and touch even the hardest of hearts.

"Volunteer this year so others can hear."

Steven D. Gilmore
Music Team Leader

7. Pastoral Ministries Report

During this past year the emphasis in pastoral ministries has focused upon strengthening the prayer life of the individual minister and of the local church. In support of this a monthly ministers' prayer group has been formed and has met regularly at FBC Aberdeen except for one month in which the group met at FBC Pinehurst. Books have been purchased on the subject of prayer and distributed to the pastors. As new pastors come into the associational churches, they receive a complete set of these books.

In conjunction with the Evangelism/Prayer Team, an association-wide prayer conference was held at FBC Aberdeen in early March and was led by Dr. Chris Schofield of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Another such event is planned for early February of 2007 and will be held at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church.

Associational strength continues to grow as more cluster groups of pastors are formed around common interests and geographical settings. One such group that has focused upon improving the effectiveness of worship is phasing out after 18 months, and others are beginning on other topics and in other locations. The next year promises to be an exciting one as new areas are explored and plans bear fruit.

Respectfully submitted,
Tom Lamkin

8. Senior Adult Report

On May Day, the first day of the month, over 260 of our more mature church members gathered at Ives Memorial Baptist Church for an evening of fine food, wonderful music, welcomed laughter, and great fellowship. The crowded conditions made things a bit tight on the serving team, but this only emphasized how popular this event is among the senior adults of the Sandhills Baptist Association. It remains the second highest event in attendance in the associational calendar.

The church family of Ives Memorial provided a wonderful meal, and if some had to wait a bit, the taste made it all well worth it. The music for the evening was presented by a fabulous young quartet called "The Four Habeneros". Consisting of Benny Edwards from FBC Southern Pines, Macky Kyle of FBC Aberdeen, Greg Pilson representing FBC Robbins, and Brent Thomas of Taylor Memorial, the quartet lost one of its members when Brent unfortunately for us moved to another church in a sister association. Luther Ozment, representing the Baptist Retirement Homes of North Carolina, brought greetings and a wonderfully humorous recounting of past personal events.

We will continue to be looking for ways to encourage our senior adults to practice the spiritual gifts with which God has blessed them. There is so much to be done for the Kingdom of God, and his retirement plan doesn't kick in until later!

Respectfully submitted,
Tom Lamkin

9. Stewardship Report

There were no formal stewardship training events during this associational year. Bro. Johnny Ross from the Baptist State Convention, however, led a conference at Emmanuel Baptist Church on financial support for the church staff through the annual budget. Out of that meeting came additional single church conferences that assisted in budget preparation. In the next year it is hoped that we will again have conferences on preparing faith-based church budgets as well as providing material for effective Christian stewardship.

Respectfully submitted,
Tom Lamkin

10. Sunday School Report

Autumn is in the air along with the excitement of serving Jesus. There is a commitment of growing Sunday School attendance in our churches. We had Sunday School council training August 8th at Emmanuel Baptist and again August 28th at Ives Memorial. Brother Tom Lamkin led these meetings. I will be following up with these churches' Sunday School directors to see if there are any areas the Association can help with. Again I'm excited about the opportunity we have in growing our Sunday Schools. People reach people; God is always working.

Respectfully submitted,
Keith Mercer, Team Leader

11. Woman's Missionary Union Report

"Christ Followers" theme continued this year and training new WMU leaders was the first item on our calendar. Robbins FBC hosted this event on Saturday, Sept. 10th, 2005. September is the month for focus on North Carolina Missions.

The WMU Leadership Team hosted an appreciation tea for SBA WMU Leaders and local missionaries/parents/kids in October. Ruby Fulbright shared some of her experiences in the missions field. A World Crafts party was held at the SBA Center.

SBA WMU collected soap bars to be packed in the Red Boxes for the Christmas Ministry for Women Inmates in NC.

Baptist Women's World Day of Prayer was observed at the SBA Center on Nov. 6th to pray for Baptist sisters around the world.

December is the emphasis month for International Missions and the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering.

The Leadership Team met in January, April and August 2006 to plan and prepare the events scheduled for each new quarter. During the April meeting the calendar of events was prepared for the coming new year.

Cameron Baptist Church hosted our annual prayer retreat in February. Mary Neil King from Raeford First Baptist Church was our retreat leader.

Southern Pines FBC hosted our Annual Celebration in March. Margaret Harding was our guest speaker. Dr. Zeb Moss also shared about the WMU Foundation.

March 5th-12th the week of Prayer for North American Missions was observed.

Missions Extravaganza was held at the Lifeway Conference Center in Ridgecrest in April. Several Team members attended as did Tom and Terri Lamkin.

Each WMU in the local church has missions projects going on year round.

We currently have 13 ladies on the WMU Council ready and willing to train and serve your WMU leaders. We have 5 ladies serving on the WMU Nominating Committee for SBA.

In 2006-2007 WMU in the Association will provide opportunities for churches and individuals to be involved in missions and connect with churches and the association in embracing the mission of God. "Live the Call" is the theme for the next year with the overarching focus being WMU equipping individuals to understand, embrace and live the mission of God. The scripture passage for our theme is Colossians 1: 3-14. Our watchword is "Walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing Him, being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God" Col. 1:10. Our critical issue for this year is poverty.

Please be in prayer for WMU as we embrace a new year.

Respectfully submitted,
Judy Strother, Team Leader

12. Youth Report

The Youth Ministers and leaders of our churches meet bi-monthly for a time of fellowship and exchanging of ideas and materials. We began keeping an ideas notebook where each youth leader brings in copies of one idea each time to pass around to the others. We have had several conferences on youth ministry concerns such as legal issues, planning and administration. We carried three youth leaders to the Youth Ministry NOW leadership workshop provided by Dr. Richard Ross and the Baptist State Convention.

Robbie Gibson, Team Leader

5. Ordination Council Report

The Ordination Council of the Sandhills Baptist Association under the leadership of Rev. D.C. Sullivan and Dr. David Boroughs acted upon two requests this past year. The first was in October of 2005 upon the request of the First Baptist Church of Vass relating to the ordination of Sammy Frady who was currently serving as their Youth Minister. After questioning the candidate, the Council voted unanimously to recommend Mr. Frady's ordination.

The second request came from Beaver Creek Baptist Church in relation to the ordination of Mr. John Brown. Brother Brown was serving as the interim pastor of Open Arms Baptist Church in Vass at the time and has since been called as their pastor. The Council voted unanimously to recommend his ordination after a time of questioning.

The Ordination Council appreciates the opportunity to support the local churches in this effort.

6. Property and Grounds Report

The Property and Grounds Committee is responsible for maintaining the building and grounds of the Association. This year during March, several churches worked together to clean up the Association grounds, prune the shrubbery, and mulch the shrubbery with pine straw. The following churches did an excellent job taking care of the grounds – April, Carthage; May – Pleasant Hill; June – Red Branch; July – Ephesus; August – Lemon Springs, September – Aberdeen, and October – Cameron. We wish to thank each church, their Baptist Men and pastors for supporting the Association.

Wayne Livengood, Chairman

7. Seminary Extension Report

In December 1950 the presidents of the Southern Seminary, Southwestern Seminary and New Orleans Seminary voted to establish the Seminary Extension Program to benefit those who cannot attend a regular institution of learning. Since the 1950s, however, the Seminary Extension Program has come a long way. Today, almost all people have access to Seminary Extension simply via their personal computers.

We as Christians need to take advantage of computers to further our education. Whether it's using the computer to spell check a paper written for a Seminary Extension class, surfing Christian websites for classes and programs, or downloading a biblical software program, the computer offers a variety of information with ease.

With this in mind, our Association has made so much available to us through our website at www.sandhillsbaptist.org. From this website we can click on Continuing Education/Education Resources for excellent Bible study resources. There is even a link here to a website that offers twenty English translations of the Bible and the Bible in forty other languages for members of our churches for whom English is not their first language. From the main website we can also access Ministry Support to see a list of continuing education classes that Sandhills Community College offers. We also have access to the Seminary Extension website at www.seminaryextension.org. Here we can find many courses available on CD, including a free course on the book of John.

For those of you who may not be computer savvy and prefer to visit a library, let's not forget that Campbell University's library is available to us. Campbell University is located in Buie's Creek, North Carolina. Please take advantage of this awesome library!

There is so much information that is available to us that is free and accessible from home or nearby. How much easier can it be to further your knowledge and education?

Roger Thomas, Director

8. Credentials Committee Report

The Credentials Committee met once this year with Pastor Mike Branscome of FBC Aberdeen in regards to the new Hispanic mission now meeting in their facilities. A plan of action was detailed that would lead to adoption of the mission by FBC Aberdeen and its inclusion in the Sandhills Baptist Association. A report will be brought back to the committee in early 2007.

VIII. Historical Events in the Churches

ABERDEEN: As a kickoff for the new church year Barry McGee, shop chaplain for Richard Childress Racing and outreach minister for NASCAR, gave a comical look from hillbilly "Harvey Garvey Tater's" prospective as to what it is like to be a Christian. In November we had an International Mission Study and dinner with retired missionary Martha McAllister. In March a prayer conference entitled "The Role of Prayer in the Local Church" was led by Chris Schofield from the Prayer Evangelism Department of the NC Baptist State Convention. A Spanish Bible Study began in February, led by Javier Soto each Saturday evening. A Disaster Relief mission trip was taken to Atlantic, NC on Oct. 31. Baby and child care packages were collected as a Hurricane Katrina Relief Project. A benefit spaghetti supper for Tape Ministry in Southeast Asia was held in February. Pastor Mike Branscome led a "Cracking the DaVinci Code" study in May. On July 4 we held our annual Fireworks and Homemade Ice Cream on the church lawn for the community. Discipleship Training Classes that were held were The Patriarchs: Encountering the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob by Beth Moore; Authentic Relationships: Being Real in an Artificial World; Returning to Holiness: A Personal and Churchwide Journey to Revival by Greg Frizzell (this was taught in all Adult Sunday School classes during August); Your Church Experiencing God Together by Henry Blackaby and Mel Blackaby; Share Jesus Without Fear by Bill Fay, also taught in adult Sunday School classes; Disciple's Prayer Life by T.W. Hunt; Experiencing God: Knowing and Doing the Will of God by Henry Blackaby; Search for Significance by Robert McGee; Beloved Disciple: The Life and Ministry of John by Beth Moore; and Voices of the Faithful by Beth Moore. (Gail Garner, historian)

ASHLEY HEIGHTS: The church purchased a second Disaster Relief trailer and added a truck to our ministry. Both trailers are stocked with the needed tools and supplies. This will enable the men to be ready to go at any time if the need arises. The tools are also used for a handyman ministry in our community as well as the neighboring area.

BEAVER CREEK: This past year has been one of celebration. We celebrated our Baptist Men's ministry first disaster relief trip out of the state to offer assistance to the flood ravaged areas of Mobile, Alabama. Second, we celebrated the creation of our inaugural New Member/Evangelism Sunday School class to which we graduated approximately 25. Lastly, we celebrated the 'note burning' of our recent land purchase to expand our current facilities. To God be all of the glory.

BEAVER CREEK: An old-fashioned outdoor baptism was held at the pond at Douglas Farm and 13 people were baptized. Rev. John Brown was ordained in a service on July 30, 2006. He is now the pastor of Open Arms Church in Vass. We are in the planning stages of building a new sanctuary. The congregation voted their approval on a proposed sketch and plans. Several members went on two trips to help with the disaster relief effort after Hurricane Katrina.

BETHLEHEM: Bethlehem Baptist Church called Rev. Roger Thomas as our Pastor. His ministry began on January 1. Our church placed a special emphasis on the growth of our Sunday School throughout the year. The Associational Bible School Clinic was held at our church. A record-breaking Bible School was held in June, with several baptisms following. A Baptist Men's organization was formed with a Royal Ambassadors group being activated soon after. Dr. and Mrs. Zeb Moss shared highlights of their mission trip to the Middle East with the church family. A donation of $250 was given to the International Mission Board to aid in the filming and distribution of a movie about Jesus to other countries translated to the native language. The first Annual Family Day was held with games, hayrides and a cookout with 85 attending. A parcel of land was purchased to enlarge our cemetery. We intend to continue serving the Lord and doing His will at Bethlehem. (Kay Robbins)

CALVARY: Our new church began Oct. 1. Our pastor, Rev. Terry Burris, resigned Nov. 20, 2005 to answer God's call to Barbee's Grove Baptist Church in Oakboro, NC. His final service at Calvary took place Dec. 4, 2005 with a fellowship meal after the morning service and a baptismal service in the evening service. A search for an interim pastor led us to Rev. Gerald Hussey, a member of Riverside Baptist Church, who was known for helping churches during transition periods. Rev. Hussey stayed with us for seven months, making our search for a full time pastor much easier. His leadership, which included much visiting and ministry outside the pulpit, was an inspiration to us all. We called Rev. Brad Harrison, who came to us from Peninsula Baptist Church in Mooresville, NC. His first Sunday was Aug. 1, 2006. The church has been energized by his enthusiasm and ability to get others actively involved in all aspects of worship and ministry. As we enter the new church year we are excited about our goals of growing our Sunday School, both in number and depth of study. We are also excited about our prayer meeting theme, which is "Teach Us To Pray." Our overall goal is to worship God in spirit and in truth, to pray biblically, to grow as individuals and as a church, and to reach out with new energy and zeal to our field of service.

CAMERON: Although this has been an emotional year with the passing of many of our church and community members, God gave us opportunities to serve Him and grace to accomplish. We participated in several outreach ministry opportunities to include: free breakfast, lunch and parking to the patrons and vendors of October and May's Cameron Street Fair and a Christmas party for Cameron Elementary students and families of Carolina Lakes. A new ministry (Music and Missions – M&M) was established for our children ages K-5th grade. Our Library was refurbished and reopened. Our website was expanded. Books were collected for Mississippi. The 'Ladies' Lunch and Learn' had 170 in attendance. Our Vacation Bible School offering was given to the 'Friend to Friend' organization. We called a part-time summer Youth Pastor. A Food Pantry was established as ministry to those in need. We held a special worship service, "Who Will Fill My Shoes," a reflection of the past and challenge for the future. We hosted an American Red Cross blood drive. Two of our members went on a mission trip to Romania. We held a Teddy Bear Party – stuffed animals were collected for hospitals, nursing homes and Friend to Friend. Our Legacy Builders participated in several community outreach projects such as building ramps, etc. Several facility improvements were made this year, especially with our air conditioning systems. We continue to seek the leadership of the Holy Spirit as we minister to those in our congregation and reach out to the unchurched. (Jane Rogers, Historian)

CARTHAGE: Our new church year began October 1. Our pastor, Rev. Thomas Herndon, is now in remission after treatments for lymphoma cancer and is feeling great. Our church Brotherhood has been involved in many exciting activities this year. These included our annual free hot dogs, drinks and cookies during the Carthage Fourth of July celebration. The Baptist Men also invited Woodmen, Frontiersmen, Trailblazers and Rangers from the Cameron Boys Home to their men's prayer breakfast at Mac's Restaurant. They also made a trek to Randleman, NC to deliver a load of Bible study materials to the Pilgrim Tract Society. Our men set up outreach booths at the annual Carthage Buggy Festival. They joined in to collect Campbells Soup labels for one of our Baptist Associations, along with a number of empty computer ink cartridges for Baptist Children's Home. Our Women continue to send items to Friend to Friend. Collecting school supplies for our local school has helped many children in our area. Our choir participated in the annual Associational ChoirSing. Our new youth director, Amanda McDonald, was able to spend several days in the mission field in the Philippines this spring. She also arranged for our youth to help with the cleanup and building projects from damage from our recent hurricanes. Our congregation collected food and cleaning products to be sent to Baptist Children's Homes across the state. (Ann Lynch)

CORNERSTONE: The church has started a puppet ministry led by the children and youth under the direction of Mrs. Holly Needham. The puppet ministry was first utilized for Vacation Bible School this year.

EAGLE SPRINGS: The church year began in September with the 104th homecoming and annual fall revival by Dr. Zeb Moss, recently retired pastor, who returned to deliver the homecoming service, and Rev. Brad Williams, a former pastor, led the four day revival. Missions at home and overseas continued to be the focus of the church during the year that included meeting our goal for State Missions Offering, Lottie Moon Christmas Offering and Annie Armstrong Easter Offering, and associational goals. Special emphasis was again given to Baptist Children's Homes, which included food, clothing and attending the Founders Day Program, Baptist Hospital and Retirement Homes. The WMU involved the church in missions projects and hands-on mission outreach, Red Box ministry for female inmates, Samaritans Purse, poinsettia tree, Thanksgiving baskets for shut-ins, food for local food banks, and care packages for college students. Special missions speakers were invited to attend during the year. A WMU member, Mrs. Joy Martin, serves on the NC Baptist Nursing Fellowship State Chapter as Secretary/Membership chairperson. The WMU participated in the Missions Fair in February at Pleasant Hill. Rev. and Mrs. Lamkin assisted in directing VBS, in which 44 children participated. A pumpkin carving event was held in October, hosted by Mr. & Mrs. Larry Pusser and Todd, who carved the pumpkins. Food donations were collected and donated to a local food bank. Rev. Charles Hinson was called as full-time pastor after having served as interim for almost a year. A large number of seniors attended the Senior Adult Banquet at Ives Memorial in May.

EMMANUEL: It's been an exciting year in the Lord at Emmanuel. We have been blessed with the early payoff of our church. Through the goodness of the Lord, He has freed up resources for greater things. After receiving donations and goods, two trailers were taken to Mississippi for the hurricane relief effort. An amazing opportunity to see the Lord at work in the hearts of His children. We thank God as the church continues to grow physically and spiritually. Greater missions and ministries are on the horizon. (Susan Cook, Clerk)

EPHESUS: Ephesus sent 7000+ Christmas cards and 40+ boxes of cookies to the troops overseas as part of our ministries. Approximately 86 shoeboxes were sent to the Samaritans Purse Organization to be sent to needy children. Several of our youth and their leaders went to Charlotte to help pack and repack the shoeboxes. Our youth go to the local Breadbasket to help serve food to the needy. Elizabeth Hearn went to Romania for 10 days to help her granddaughter, Michelle (Kelly) and Daniel Sims with the Children of the Son organization. Our seniors, the Golden Treasures, hosted the seniors from White Hill Presbyterian and Center United Methodist Churches with Greg Pilson from Robbins First as our guest speaker/singer. Rev. Roger Thomas was called to serve Bethlehem Baptist Church. Rev. David Thomas from Siler City was called to Ephesus to serve as interim pastor. God continues to bless Ephesus by calling Rev. David Thomas to serve as our full time pastor.

FAIRVIEW: A children's church was started in the past year, along with a Young Children's Choir.

FAITH: The church constructed a playground for young children this year.

IVES MEMORIAL: Rev. Mike Branscome of Aberdeen First Baptist was our guest speaker for our Spiritual Refreshment Weekend, October 7-9, 2005. Our new baby grand piano was first played on November 6, and we have enjoyed its beautiful sound. Our annual "Free-for-All" ministry took place the Saturday after Thanksgiving, and was a very successful outreach. Money donated was given to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. Many participated in the shoebox ministry, and several youth and adults worked in Charlotte helping to pack them. We had concerts on February 26 (T.R. and the Boys) and on September 17 (Commandment 11). A member graciously donated money to pave the church parking area, and this was completed in September 2006. (Betty Jean Hardy, Church Clerk)

During October we collected food for the victims of Katrina and we began practice for a Christmas cantata that we performed with Summer Hill Church. Fall revival was held September 10-13, with Jim Strickland speaking. Homecoming was celebrated with Rev. Robbie Gibson speaking. (Leora Thomas, Historian)

NEW HOME: God has blessed our church and church family with yet another fun-filled, exciting year. On October 29, 2005 we hosted our first fall festival. In December 2005 we participated in Operation Christmas Child Ministries. A big blessing on both ends came from this. Our first Men's Ministry meeting got underway in February 2006. On April 23, 2006 we held our first Children's Church for youth ages 4-9. With God and faith "we're going on with it." (Lynda Ring, Historian)

OPEN ARMS: In November 2005 we were blessed to have John Brown accept the position as our pastor. In July of this year he was ordained at Beaver Creek Baptist Church. Our deacons served a Sweetheart Breakfast in February. Our church members organized "See You at the Pole" at three schools in our area. Women on Mission sent 4 boys and 2 girls to camp this summer, and helped feed Habitat workers. Women on Mission and Youth organized our second Back to School Block Party, with school supplies given to 35 youth attending. Our youth went on a ski trip to West Virginia and had a very good time. They continue to have services on each 5th Sunday. They presented a moving skit for the community Sunrise Service and at church on Easter morning.

PINE GROVE: Sunday School classes were remodeled. A new kitchen bar, sink and cabinet were installed in the Fellowship Hall. A Deacon ordination service was held for Donnie Wallace. (Mary Ann Myrick, Church Clerk)

PINEHURST: The highlight of this past year for First Baptist Church of Pinehurst was the building program that was completed. We entered into a capital campaign program, contracted with Kanoy Design and Build Firm, and built our first permanent building on Highway 211. We moved into the building the first Sunday of April, 2006. We set our record for high attendance for worship on Easter with 351 in attendance. On June 11 we celebrated our 4th anniversary. Our pastor, David Marks, was elected to serve on the Board of Directors for the NC Baptist State Convention. The church was saddened by the tragic loss of Mr. Bill Bost, who was an original charter member and served as deacon and moderator of the church.

PINEYWOOD: A new ceiling was installed in the church and the inside of the church was repainted. Two new signs were made for the new road leading to the church. All the pews in the church were reupholstered. $1,000 was sent to Baptist Children's Home in Winston-Salem for their food supplies. $2,000 was sent to the Ukraine Challenge International Missionary, and $3,000 was sent to Rev. Larry Adams, missionary. The church licensed Deacon Brad Marona to preach the Word of God. (Shirley Lassiter, Church Clerk)

PLEASANT HILL: The morning worship service is now held in the multi-purpose building to accommodate the growing congregation. A room was set aside for the church library and new shelving was added. The reopening was held in October. The Brotherhood installed 3 flagpoles with lighting around them, put in an irrigation system for the yard and helped establish a playground for the children. The old fellowship hall was converted into classrooms. A shed was built for storage of yard equipment. A Ladies Prayer and Exercise class was started and meets twice weekly. In February we hosted the annual Sandhills Baptist Association Missions Fair. The Steeles family held the service in March, with the family singing praises to the Lord and Jeff Steele bringing the message. Also in March we began a Parent's Heart group. This was a time of prayer and encouragement for all parents. A class on Enriching Your Marriage was held in July for couples to look at what God's Word says about what it is to be a husband and wife. A class to prepare members to witness was held.

RED BRANCH: The men have been busy doing work for our shut-ins and also going on mission trips to help the storm victims. The ladies missions group and all women of the church made a cookbook and have been able to do more missions projects from the sale of the books. On Youth Sunday we had the Teen Challenge group for the morning service, which was arranged by our youth leader. We held a "free yard sale" in August. Church members donated clothing and shoes and invited people to come and get what they needed for school children who can't afford to buy clothing. Red Branch sponsored a Bible Fair at the Carthage fairgrounds on October 22. The choir presented a beautiful Christmas cantata. Our 84th homecoming was on May 28 with Billy Metters, a former pastor, preaching the sermon. Our newly elected pastor will begin the last Sunday in October. (Edith Marsh and Geraldine Wall)

ROBBINS: We are indebted to Dr. Zeb & Evelyn Moss for their faithful leadership and loving guidance during the first five months of this church year. Dr. Moss came to serve as interim in September 2005. He not only filled the pulpit by preaching God's Word, he visited, led the church in doubling its Lottie Moon goal and participated in all the church activities. As in the past, God provided exactly what we needed during this transitional time. Dr. Moss was also very instrumental in helping us to find God's man to serve as our Pastor. A pig pickin' fellowship on January 7, 2006 gave the church family an opportunity to meet Rev. Kenneth McNeill and family; wife, Sherri and four children, Travis, Kenisha, Jared and Zeb. The following day, Rev. McNeill preached and the church voted to call him as Pastor. Rev. McNeill's first Sunday was March 5, 2006. For the next seven months God has continued to bless in so many ways. We have already experienced church growth with the addition of 19 new members. We had a great Vacation Bible School during July with a record number in attendance including our Hispanic friends in the community. We had photography in August for a new pictorial directory. We recently purchased the house located beside the church that was owned by church member, Gail Page. It will certainly offer a number of future ministry possibilities. A "Building Freedom for the Future" committee was organized to focus on retiring the debt of our Worship & Fellowship Center. They did a superb job in planning a wonderful 71st Homecoming on September 17, 2006 with emphasis on the past, present and future. We had an overflowing crowd, took in twice the challenge goal of $30,000 and received three year commitments toward the debt relief! To God be the glory! In the midst of all of this, church members stepped up and planned a benefit for long time faithful member, Roy Phillips. Roy is young man of 55 who is unable to work due to a progressive brain disease that causes early dementia. "Roy Phillips' Day" on September 23 included a car show, gospel music, large bake sale and silent auction. It was a huge success and we praise God for the number of people from the church and community that participated. We are grateful to our Minister of Music, Greg Pilson for directing our youth ministry over the past year. It is active and growing with the help of wonderful parent volunteers. A Youth Pastor Search Committee is prayerfully seeking someone to serve as Pastor of Youth and Family Life. Plans for the new church year are already filled with wonderful opportunities that God has placed before us!

SOUTHERN PINES: It has been another busy year for First Baptist of Southern Pines. Its choir joined the choir of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church in presenting "Elijah" in a two night performance in the fall. Missions trips were frequent. A group of 10 went to Atlantic, NC to help rebuild homes damaged by water; three went to Scotland to help our partnering church, First Baptist of Ales, with literature distribution; six college students plus two adults went to Honduras where they constructed three Sunday School classrooms. Approximately 35 youth, accompanied by church staff and parents, went to Gulfport, Mississippi where they sang and rang handbells in churches, hospitals and a retirement center, as well as worked on needed repairs. This year there were three Belarussian children who came for six weeks during the summer, accompanied by an interpreter. They resided with families of church members and had needed eye, dental and physical examinations as well as many church and recreational activities. The church sponsored its second year of the Barnabas project in which third and fourth graders from Southern Pines Elementary School came for two hours every Monday for instruction and fun in manners, math, social studies, games across the curriculum. Approximately 30 students attended, and they and their families were feted at a banquet at school's end. The church will break ground before year's end for a new educational wing, renovations to the existing facility, and an enlarged parking lot. (Cos Barnes)

TAYLOR MEMORIAL: Taylor Memorial Baptist Church celebrated it's 71st homecoming on Sunday, September 25, 2005 with dinner in the Fellowship Hall. In September, Rev. Brent Thomas and Jerry Wilson shared in the "Walk to Emmaus". A number of the ladies attended the Women of Faith Conference in Charlotte on October 28th and 29th. Everyone enjoyed a Fall Festival on Saturday, November 19th. There were games, contests, and food for all attending. Proceeds went to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. Each Thanksgiving, Taylor Memorial Baptist Church and Roseland United Methodist Church hold a joint service on Wednesday before Thanksgiving. Taylor Memorial hosted the service this year with the Pastor of Roseland United Methodist Church leading the worship. Everyone enjoyed a time of fellowship and refreshments following the service. The Youth of the Church sponsored their 3rd annual spaghetti dinner on Sunday, February 12th. The Deacon's and their spouses enjoyed an evening out at John's Bar-B-Que on Thursday, January 26th. Brent Thomas and Jerry Wilson attended the Promise Keepers outing in Raleigh on June 16th and 17th. A dedication service for the new playground was held on June 11th "In Memory of Randy Shaver". After the dedication everyone enjoyed hot dogs and hamburgers. On Sunday, June 4th, Rev. Brent Thomas resigned from the Taylor Memorial Baptist Church to accept a call to Warsaw, North Carolina. On Sunday, June 25th, upon a recommendation from the Deacon Board, the Church voted unanimously to call Dr. Zeb Moss as interim pastor.

VASS: This past year has been a year of several staff changes for us. Our new pastor, Bill Davis, was extended a call from our church and began serving May 1, 2006. Under his leadership the church body is moving forward, growing in the knowledge and application of God's word, and in His service to the local community, our nation, and foreign nations. We also have a new music director, Jennifer Vest, whose leadership enables us to continue to proclaim God's word through our music program. Abigail Davis began serving as our interim minister of youth and children this past summer. She has been very instrumental in guiding our youth to form a close-knit group and leading them closer to God through Bible study and fellowship. She has also provided an ongoing program of study and fellowship for our children. Through our Baptist Women and Baptist Men, the church has participated in missions projects for Cameron Boys' Camp; providing winter hats for local groups; Special Katrina Relief library book project; Women's Prison project; sponsoring families at Christmas; and providing back to school materials for local students at the beginning of this school year. We also collected reading glasses, vitamins, and various first aid supplies which were taken to Bolivia by our pastor and his daughter, Abigail, in September. On August 27 Judy Mansfield was honored at the morning worship service in recognition of her service as our organist/pianist. The congregation of First Baptist Church, Vass, continues to be richly blessed; and we are grateful for the many blessings that God has bestowed upon us. (Judy Mansfield)

VICTORY: Rev. David Peitz from Aberdeen was voted in as pastor and began on September 1, 2005. We started a basement project to have nine Sunday School classrooms. Work was completed in 2006. We had 18 people join our church this year. We had an average attendance in VBS of 95 each night.

WEST END: This past year has been a good year for First Baptist Church of West End. We saw two saints go home to be with their Lord and Savior. We added members to the Kingdom through salvation and baptism. We participated in a community Thanksgiving service, the first in our community in many years. Our church started a children's ministry for the first time in several years. Our Children in Action led us in worship with songs on Grandparents Day. We are seeing God do some great things and look forward to His Kingdom coming in our community on earth as it is in Heaven.

X. Institutions, Agencies, and Board Reports

Through the working together of sister churches, locally and on the state and national level, we are able to be involved in multiple ministries, much of which we could not do by ourselves. In our own state we are fortunate to have excellent institutions and agencies and dedicated, skilled leaders to make possible many mission ministries. We have more detailed information regarding the work of these institutions and boards in the associational center. Or, you may contact the Baptist State Convention, P O Box 1107, Cary, N C 27511-1107, phone 1-800-395-5102, for information. You may contact any of the following for assistance:
